PHANTOM SNIPER OF EDMONTON STRIKES TWICE IN ONE NIGHT

Police Appeal to Citizens for Aid in Search of Person Who Shoots Through Windows of Homes and Cars—Woman Reports Narrow Escape When Walking

EDMONTON, March 1 (CP).—A phantom sniper who struck twice this week, the fifth and sixth times in six weeks, was inactive tonight while police searched the city. They sought a gunman who had fired into two homes, into the City Market Building, into a car, past a woman's head as she walked on the street, and past a herder near the city limits.

Police said they probably would find, at the end of their search, someone with a twisted mind. They puzzled over the question of someone openly carrying a .22 rifle about on the streets at night, and appealed to citizens seeing a sign of it to notify headquarters.

SHOOT INTO AUTO.
Officers renewed their search this week when the sniper fired into the car of C. E. Lundy as he drove on 109th Street and fired past the head of a woman as she walked Wednesday night on 162nd Avenue.

The woman, whose name is withheld by police, told officers a bullet brushed by her head, actually touching her hair, and she heard the "ing" of the lead. She had heard a noise in the lane as she walked by, and as she turned her head the bullet was fired, she said.

SHATTERS WINDOWS
The sniper first struck January 15 when he fired into a bedroom in the home of C. Tourigny. On January 22 he sent a bullet crashing through a window in the City Market Building. H. Kirkwood, assistant caretaker, had just passed the window when the bullet shattered the glass.

Two nights later, two .22 rifle bullets crashed into a porchway at the home of Henry Hollinger. Then the sniper was silent until February 15, when a bullet screamed past John Isaac as he stood at a street corner.

BLUEBIRD GOES ALL OUT TODAY

Daytona Beach Now in Shape for Sir Malcolm Campbell's Test

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 1 (AP).—The tension is off Sir Malcolm Campbell, the man who rides the monster, for he's driving Bluebird on the racing sands tomorrow. The beach is smooth again. While he's about it, he'll probably shoot the throttle to the floor and shoot for fulfillment of his racing dream—300 miles an hour.

But for the two persons closest to him in this world, the pressure is only starting. Lady Campbell, his wife, is, at least, nervous. Little Jean, their eleven-year-old daughter, drops her cards as she plays rummy in the hotel lobby with grandfatherly old Odis Forster, the official timer, who has taught her the game in the month they've all been waiting.

For the past month it's been Sir Malcolm, the fifty-year-old Englishman who can't get speed out of his blood, who has been restless.

SIR MALCOLM AT EASE
Now, with the next three days almost certain to hold the answer to Campbell's hopes, even his life, as he sends the 2,500-horsepower, rebuilt Bluebird thundering down the sands after his own 272-mile-an-hour record, Sir Malcolm is at ease.

All he has to do now is drive—step the throttle to the floor, ride it at hurricane speed through eleven and one-half miles, covering the middle one, he hopes, in twelve seconds flat.

He was jovial today as he said, "the beach has improved amazingly. I shall go tomorrow for a test run, unless something totally unexpected develops overnight."

No one pays much attention to the "test" part of it. Sir Malcolm always starts on "test" runs.

High Ranking Men Jailed For Spying

PRAHA, Czechoslovakia, March 1 (AP).—Czechoslovakia clapped ten high officials into jail today as investigation of the arrest of three Germans last night led to the very doors of an alleged espionage ring. Three of those arrested were described as personages of the Ministry of War.

Though authorities refused to reveal the names of the officials held, they indicated their belief that an "espionage syndicate" existed. The ten, together with the three Germans, were said to be spying for Austria and Hungary.

MARKET PLAN IS APPROVED

Scheme for British Columbia Coastal Area Authorized at Ottawa

OTTAWA, March 1 (CP).—The vegetable marketing scheme of the coastal area of British Columbia, prepared and submitted by growers, has been approved by Minister of Agriculture Robert Weir and the Governor-in-Council upon the recommendation at the Dominion Marketing Board. The scheme refers to all vegetables produced in the described area with the exception of rhubarb, hot-house tomatoes and cucumbers, and beans, corn and peas grown and sold for canning.

Prior to the submission of the scheme of the Dominion Marketing Board, the Provincial Marketing Board of British Columbia adopted a scheme to regulate the marketing within the province, of the vegetables produced in the coastal area.

SUPPLEMENTARY SCHEME
The vegetable marketing scheme, just approved, is intended to supplement the provincial scheme, to regulate the marketing of these vegetables, produced in the described area that may be exported from British Columbia, and to grant authority for the collection of tolls and charges.

The local board which is to administer the Federal marketing scheme will be, the persons who comprise the local board under the provincial scheme, namely, Arthur Swanson, Ladner; A. H. Peterson, Duncan; and Joseph Maxwell, New Westminster. The headquarters are in Vancouver. Until April, 1935, the local board has no authority to regulate the marketing of vegetables other than potatoes.

Women Come Near Finding Dream True

PARIS, March 1 (CP-Havas).—The Chamber of Deputies today voted overwhelmingly for women's suffrage in France, and simultaneously granted women the right to stand as candidates for national, departmental and municipal offices.

The vote was 453 to 124. If the measure passes the Senate, the great dream of France's feminists will come true. Similar bills in former years have been rejected by the Senate.

Tourist Commission Suggested to House By Saanich Member

Norman W. Whittaker, M.P.P., Proposes Victory Drive to Sell Scenic Highway Bonds by Public Subscription—P.G.E. Director Makes Report

PROVINCIAL action now, to make British Columbia the premier tourist-trade province in Canada, by creation of an independent tourist development commission, to sponsor a considerable programme of scenic highway development, financed by public subscription to long-term bonds at moderate interest rates, was suggested to the Provincial Legislature yesterday by Norman W. Whittaker, in the budget debate.

The sale of the bonds, the member for Saanich stated, would depend on the assurance offered to the public that such a programme would be carried through entirely without political motives, but unitedly for the development of the tourist trade industry on a north-wide, permanently extensible basis. On this basis the bonds would not only be a prime investment, but the best corporate move ever undertaken by the people by common enterprise.

Winner of Diamond Button

F. E. Guest, 483 Fraser Street, Esquimalt, is wearing a proud smile today. He has been awarded the diamond set gold button of the Victoria and Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association, annually awarded to the member catching the largest salmon under association rules in Saanich Inlet. Mr. Guest, who is "Tyee Man" for the 1935 season, caught the largest spring salmon between February 28, 1934, and March 1 this year. He is pictured above with the fish, which tipped the scales at forty-five pounds.

Asks Protection Of House From Possible Arrest

Hon. Peter Veniot Says He Is Threatened With Seizure for Contempt of Court for Statements Made About R.C.M.P. Methods—Is Assured of Parliamentary Immunity

OTTAWA, March 1 (CP).—Hon. Peter Veniot, former Postmaster-General, stood in the House of Commons today and warned he would fight if anyone attempted to arrest him. He called for protection of the House against possible action for contempt of court arising from statements made by a Montreal lawyer in the Bronfman preliminary hearing in that city.

LINERS BATTERED BY HEAVY STORMS

SOUTHAMPTON, England, March 1 (AP).—Two big trans-Atlantic liners, badly battered by heavy seas, made their way into port here today, after what their captains called the roughest crossing in their experience.

Commander Oscar Scharf, of the Europa, which altered her course in mid-ocean to search unsuccessfully for the ill-fated steamer Blairgowrie, said, "during my thirty-five years of experience I have never seen such truly mountainous seas."

Commander R. V. Peel, of the Olympic, which arrived several hours later, said "I have never known such continuous bad weather in my experience of the Atlantic."

TIN CAN ALLEY IS EVACUATED

Honolulu Tenements Condemned as Unsafe After Wednesday's Storm

HONOLULU, March 1 (AP).—A devastating storm which struck Oahu Island on Wednesday afternoon, today claimed its ninth victim and forced forty-four additional families from their homes in Honolulu's picturesque Tin Can Alley. Exodus of residents from Tin Can Alley commenced today under police orders issued after A. W. Heen, city building inspector pronounced four rickety tenements unsafe. Many of the old buildings leaned perilously on foundations weakened by swirling flood waters on Wednesday.

Chinese, Japanese, Hawaiians, Filipinos and whites hastily bundled together their meagre belongings, grabbed their bird cages and whistled for nondescript dogs as they prepared to obey the police ultimatum that the buildings must be cleared by nightfall. Red Cross workers made new homes available to them temporarily, and Tin Can Alley, minus its usual clatter of mixed tongues, was roped off under guard.

Greece Placed Under Martial Law When Uprising Discovered

Combined Revolt in Army and Navy Crushed by Government

SEVERAL WARSHIPS RESISTING FEEBLY

ATHENS, March 1 (AP).—Martial law was invoked throughout Greece tonight after an attempt to launch a simultaneous revolt in the army and navy was crushed by the Government. Several warships and the arsenal at Salamis were reported still to be resisting "feebly," but Government circles said their surrender was expected hourly.

The revolt was blamed upon supporters of former Premier Eleutherios Venizelos, political foe of the present regime.

Earlier a Government announcement said it was plotted by officers who supported General Nicholas Plastiras, director for one day during a revolt in 1933, and was quickly suppressed.

ORDER IS MAINTAINED
The Government statement said it was master of the situation and that "all is quiet."

General Plastiras carried out a military coup d'etat in March, 1933, but ruled for only twenty-four hours. He was later arrested, but escaped and took sanctuary on the Italian island of Kalymnos.

Eleven army officers were arrested last Summer in connection with a plot to establish a dictatorship.

No details were disclosed of tonight's attempted coup, and it was not known whether any fighting accompanied it.

BEGGIE PAPERS FOR ARCHIVES

Gold Rush in Klondike, South African War and Other Incidents Recalled

Provincial Archives were in possession yesterday of four new acquisitions dealing with a wide range of subjects. The commission, appointing Matthew Baillie Begbie judge in the Crown Colony of British Columbia, was issued on September 2, 1858, actually before the colony was created. It was signed by Queen Victoria and by Lord Lytton, the original document now having been acquired by the archives.

From Rev. B. Appleyard, now of Burgate, England, the archives received 100 original slides from photographs taken by him while a pioneer missionary for the Church of England in the Yukon during the gold rush, between 1895 and 1900. The slides include excellent scenes and groups of life on the Coast, as well as in the Far North.

W. P. Howell, of this city, has presented the archives with a copy of a notice posted by the late Lord Kitchener warning the citizens of Capetown, South Africa, of dangers in troublesome times of the Boer War.

From Capt. J. W. Gidley, of this city, the Province obtained a powder horn, the property of his grandfather, James Warren, a pioneer settler in Simcoe County, Ontario.

Dr. Kaye Lamb, Provincial librarian and archivist, expressed warm appreciation of the Province to those who made possible the preservation of these records and exhibits.

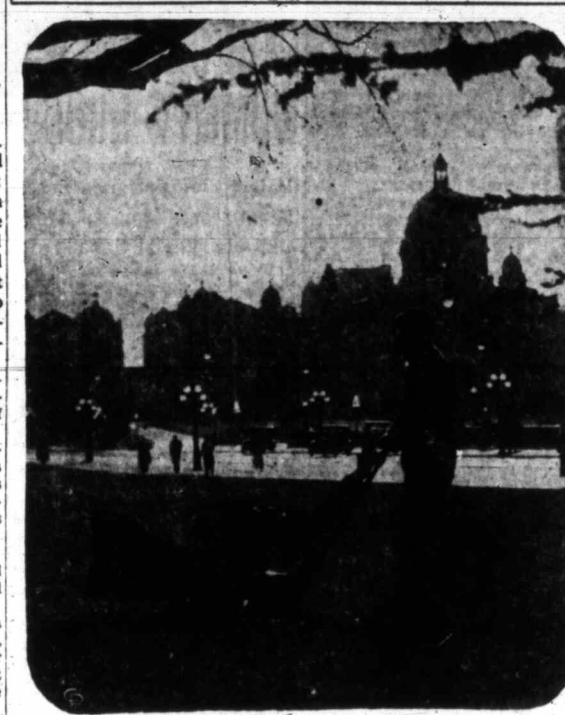

TRYING TO AVERT STRIKE OF POLICE

Toronto's Guardians of the Peace Will Cease Work Tonight Unless Demands Met

TORONTO, March 1 (AP).—Faced with an emphatic announcement from the Toronto Police Association that local police officers would strike on Saturday at midnight unless the good conduct badge system was restored, Mayor James Simpson moved tonight to avert a tie-up in the city's police service.

The mayor called a special meeting of the board of police commissioners for tomorrow, and it was believed, if nothing definite was settled, a meeting of the board of control will be held shortly after.

OTTAWA, March 1 (CP).—The Governor-General, Countess Bessborough, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, and Sir George Perley joined tonight in launching a sixty-six-day campaign to raise money for a national cancer relief fund to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of King George's accession to the throne.

CHINESE SLAY THEIR CAPTIVES

Two British Missionaries Reported Killed in Hunan Province

CHANGTSEI, Hunan Province, China, Mar. 1 (AP).—Two British missionaries, R. A. Boshardt and A. Hayman, captured by Communists in Kweichow Province last October, have been executed by their captors, according to Chinese reports reaching missionaries here.

A Chinese asserted he saw the hacked bodies of the two missionaries lying in a street in the village of Feng Chien, ten miles west of Tayung, in Northwestern Hunan Province. He reported that the alleged "public murder" occurred on Christmas Day, and said the incident had not been reported sooner because of the remoteness of the village and the difficulty of penetrating Red army lines.

NO WORD IN SHA.
(Mission headquarters at Shanghai have as yet received no word of the reported slayings.)

The eye-witness declared Boshardt and Hayman were slain along with other captives after the time limit specified in the ransom demands had expired. The loss of the two missionaries for extension of the time was fruitless, he said, and they were cut down together with their Chinese companions.

No direct word has been received from Boshardt and Hayman by the China Inland Mission since early last December, when they wrote what may have been their last letter.

GETTING FUNDS FOR CHIEF SCOUT'S COMING

MONTREAL, March 1 (CP).—An amount just under 60 per cent of the total objective of $130,000 aimed at in the Boy Scout "Welcome Baden-Powell" campaign has been received, it was announced today. Officials have obtained $77,220.

POUND DROPS WHILE GOLD PRICE GAINS

Nervousness on Continent Over Future of Sterling Blamed for Decline

FURTHER FALL SEEN IN SOME QUARTERS

LONDON, March 1 (CP).—Public attention was focussed tonight on the pound sterling's continued decline in terms of foreign exchange, even while commentators stressed it naturally was as good as ever so far as internal purchasing power is concerned.

The continued decline, ascribed to a variety of causes in which continental nervousness over the pound's future seemed foremost, was accompanied by a stimulation of trade on the stock exchange in which South African gold mine shares were predominant. Industrial stocks improved on better trade returns.

GOLD AT RECORD HIGH
While the price of bar gold went to a record high, advancing a shilling an ounce to forty-five shillings and penny—the equivalent of better than $35 in United States funds—the pound sank to three cents below its old gold parity.

WELCOME SAAR BACK TO REICH

Germany Celebrates Return of Region to Authority of the Fatherland

SAARBRÜCKEN, Germany, March 1 (AP).—Adolf Hitler welcomed the Saar back to Germany today as fifteen years of foreign control of the basin officially terminated.

"It is quite possible," Hitler told his vast, wildly cheering audience, "that by this return the crisis was averted under which two great neighbor nations suffered."

"By this act of equality and justice, the way finally has been cleared for improving our relations with France. Just as we desire peace, so it is hoped our neighbor folk are willing to co-operate in common work for averting the difficulty which threatens to engulf Europe."

GERMANS CELEBRATE
BERLIN, March 1 (AP).—Germany welcomed the Saar back home today in the greatest fanfare since the Nazis seized power two years ago.

Biggest celebrations took place in Berlin, where the city's entire population appeared to have joined Storm Troopers and Reichswehr (regular army) forces in tramping through the streets.

All Germany's sister cities, almost without exception, staged celebrations and parades, and local speakers addressed enthusiastic throngs.

VETERAN FIGHTING HARD
WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP).—Oliver Wendell Holmes carried on tonight in his fight against pneumonia, a "shade better," those at his bedside said. Physicians indicated that the ninety-three-year-old former Supreme Court justice was holding his own.

More Borrowing No Cure for B. C. Debt Legislature Is Told

Big Car Ideas on Small Car Income, Persisting Over Twenty Years, Landed Province in Difficulties, Herbert Anscomb Tells House

"THIS Legislature should realize that there is no 'scientific approach' to debt. If we cannot pay the debts of the past, we most certainly cannot continue our present rate of taxation and our present level of expenditure. The estimates presented to the House record that out of 169 votes no less than fifty-eight show increases. How long can that go on?—We have accustomed ourselves, for the last twenty years, to live on a big-car style on a small-car income."

Herbert Anscomb, third member for Victoria, said in a slashing attack on the budget yesterday in the Legislature.

Mr. Anscomb spoke twenty-five other people's money. Now, we have minutes on the budget debate, placing his criticisms on a non-political plane from the start. He reminded the House of the budget presented by Hon. R. O. Tatlow in 1908, when the Provincial revenues had been $6,000,000, expenditures $4,500,000, and the total net debt for 1925, people less than $10,000,000.

Fish of B.C. Waters Have Economic Value With a Great Variety

Dr. W. A. Clemens, Director of Biological Station at Departure Bay, Addresses Large Audience at Natural History Museum Here

"MAY I congratulate the persons responsible for the institution of this series of lectures? British Columbia is inhabited by most interesting groups of plants and animals. With the increasing movement toward the outdoor life, British Columbians should acquire a greater knowledge of the plants and animals, and so add greatly to the pleasure of hiking, autoing, boating and fishing," said Dr. W. A. Clemens, director of the Dominion Biological Station, Departure Bay (Nanaimo), in concluding his fascinating lantern lecture at the Natural History Museum, Parliament Buildings, last evening.

Dr. Clemens' address, the subject of which was "Strategic Fishes of the Northwest Pacific," was one of the series of natural history talks instituted here recently, and was attended by a capacity audience. Illustrated with lantern slides that concisely indicated the differences between the different species, and by a reel of "movie" showing General Money and other anglers fishing for salmon in some of the Up-Island rivers, the lecture appealed to the natural history student and fisherman alike, and Dr. A. G. Price's enthusiastic vote of thanks was endorsed by the hearty applause of the audience.

F. Kermode, curator of the Museum, spoke a few introductory words, announcing that two lectures for children would take place at 9:45 and 11:15 this morning on "Animals of the Forest." He also introduced the chairman of the evening, G. F. Alexander, assistant commissioner of fisheries for British Columbia, who in turn introduced Dr. Clemens.

215 SPECIES
Dr. Clemens informed the audience that a total of 215 species of fish were already known and classified.

Why His Headaches Ceased

Wife Put Kruschen in His Coffee

He could not understand why the headaches he had been subject to suddenly ceased. His wife told him, and he at once sat down and wrote the following letter:—

"I am 62 years of age, and ever since I was a boy of ten years, I was subject to very bad headaches. But two years ago the headaches stopped—for what reason I did not know. I was surprised when one day my wife told me I had been using Kruschen Salts in my coffee for over two years. I am still using them, as I know of nothing finer for the system."—J.T.

Headaches can nearly always be traced to a disordered stomach, and to the unsuppressed retention in the system of stagnating waste material which poisons the blood. Remove these poisons—prevent them from forming again—and you'll never have to worry any more. And that is just how Kruschen Salts bring swift and lasting relief from headaches. Kruschen Salts aid Nature to cleanse your body completely of all clogging waste matter. (Adv.)

February Sunniest For Many Years on Nanaimo's Records

NANAIMO, March 1.—Sunshine in February totaling ninety-one hours was the highest recorded in twenty-five years, according to official figures; the former high in that period for the same month being eighty-eight. Rain for February totaled 2.61 inches, which was below the average of 4.02 for the same month during the past thirty-two years.

considerable notoriety, one being cast up on Henry Island, and for a time thought to be a sea serpent. Other species of simple "true" fish considered and pictured were the rays and skates. The higher types of "true" fish included the swordfish and other commercial or sport fish, such as the salmon, the herring and pilchard, the mackerel, the cod and various others. Very interesting charts illustrated the distinctions between the various types of salmon and cod, particularly informative being the pictures denoting the distinctive features of the latter.

CABINET HEARS WOMEN'S GROUP

Protest Wines and Beer, Unguarded Movies, and Anomalies at Oakalla

Protest against any introduction of the sale of beer and light wines in restaurants and hotels was made before the Provincial Cabinet yesterday morning by delegates of the Provincial Council of Women, under Mrs. A. C. Bagley, president.

The delegation also sought restriction of the sale of cocaine, as a habit-forming drug; introduction of the cottage system for care of women prisoners at Oakalla, and other changes in the penal system to improve the lot of juveniles. More effective means of banning juveniles from unsuitable motion pictures were also advocated.

The delegation was introduced by Mrs. Paul Smith, M.P.P., and included Provincial, Vancouver and Victoria officials of the organization. Mrs. A. C. Bagley, Mrs. Rex Eaton, Mrs. Cecilia Spofford and Mrs. F. J. Bolton spoke to resolutions incorporating the representations made.

Premier Pattullo and the full personnel of the Cabinet received the delegates, consideration being promised.

STILL LOST IN AFRICAN WILDS

Search Parties Out in Northern Rhodesia for Governor's Wife

LIVINGSTONE, Northern Rhodesia, March 1 (CP via Reuters).—Lady Margaret Young, wife of the Governor of Northern Rhodesia, and her physician, were still lost in the jungle tonight, many hours after their airplane had been forced down.

They took off from here for Lusaka, 300 miles distant, yesterday afternoon. When darkness fell tonight, hundreds of searchers who had begun to scour the animal-infested terrain, had to report failure to find any trace of the machine and its passengers. Lady Young, although convalescing from an attack of influenza, was at the controls with Dr. J. Kerby, Government medical officer, as passenger.

Four planes conducted a systematic search, from the air, and will resume it tomorrow.

In addition, the Rhodesia railways organized a search party of 100 men, while 200 native soldiers of the North Rhodesia Regiment were enlisted for the hunt.

REV. H. E. SEXTON ACCEPTS OFFICE

Bishop-Coadjutor-Elect Expected to Arrive in Victoria March 23 on R.M.S. Niagara

Rev. Harold Eustace Sexton, vicar for All Saints, Upper Norwood, London, S.E. England, has accepted the invitation by the Anglican Synod, in session here Thursday and Friday, to take the office of bishop-coadjutor in the Columbia Diocese. The synod office announced yesterday it had been advised the bishop-coadjutor, who has been visiting in Melbourne, planned to leave Sydney for Victoria tomorrow. It is expected he will arrive in Victoria aboard the R.M.S. Niagara on March 22.

According to present plans, the bishop-coadjutor will go on to London to settle affairs there and then return to Victoria to take over the office of assistant to Bishop Schofield. As coadjutor, the new incumbent would, it is stated, have the right of succession to the bishopric.

Guard Found Shot In Bank Suicide

LONDON, March 1 (AP).—A coroner's jury returned a verdict today that a member of the Prince of Wales' Welsh Guard, who was found shot to death in the Bank of England's bullion yard, had killed himself while of unsound mind. The body of the guard, James Baker, twenty, was found two days ago.

Approval of Visit Fully Confirmed

LONDON, March 1 (AP).—The Government's approval of a trip to Moscow by Sir John Simon, Foreign Secretary, apparently was fully confirmed today, when it was officially announced that a formal invitation had been transmitted from the Soviet capital.

A formal announcement of acceptance, however, probably will be postponed until it is possible to announce simultaneously a visit to Warsaw and Praha.

PUPILS OFFER FINE DISPLAY

Victoria High School Students Present Annual Show to Large Audience

A well-balanced programme, embracing boys' gymnastic work, girls' folk dancing, spectacular drill, a basketball game, staged by more than three hundred Victoria High School students, was witnessed by a capacity crowd in the school gymnasium last night. The programme will be repeated this evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Richard Hughes, Donald Kerr, Jack Robertson, R. Newberry and J. Matte provided plenty of thrills for the spectators in their opening performance on the horizontal bar. The highlight of their routine was the "grand circles" breath-takingly presented by John Matte.

The first folk dance on the programme, "The Tarantella," was strikingly done, with the girls participating in costumes of brilliant hues.

SKIPPING ACT
A girls' skipping act followed. This number was offered by more than fifty students to the music of the "Woman in the Shoe," played by the High School orchestra.

The boys' apparatus work on the parallel bars was a great show of teamwork. The lads showed their individual capabilities in solo "turns." Dancing to stirring tunes played on the bagpipes by Pipe Major Donald Cameron, the girls presented the "Dashing White Sergeant" and "Sixteenmore Reel," and both were gratifying to the audience. The costumes for these two dances were most appropriately fashioned.

The boys' physical drill sent the students' parents home with the impression that daily physical training was beneficial to the health of those attending school. The demonstration included drills and games.

The combination band and dumb bell drill, led by Coach Mona Miller, was cleverly carried out by a large number of girls.

BASKETBALL GAME
The ten-minute basketball game between the Blacks and Shamrocks, two school teams, provided a break in the programme. Blacks defeated Shamrocks, 7 to 2. The half-time score was 5-0 for Blacks. Tonight the Blacks will meet the school first-half champions, Cardinals.

"The Waltz of the Flowers," presented by Miss Nancy Ferguson's proteges, was delightful to watch. The setting was made to show the effect of day on the flowers and the slow folding up, nightfall. Four girls were realistic in their portrayals of costumes of yellow wings and black bodies.

The entertainment was concluded with tumbling, a "Dance of the Wooden Soldiers," Indian club-swinging, apparatus work on the horse and the final formation of the letters "V.H.S." by the entire cast of girls.

Two pyramids on the parallel bars and one on the box-horse drew commendable comment. Miss Mona G. Miller and W. A. Roper, physical directors, and Miss Nancy Ferguson, dancing instructor, were in charge of the programme.

POLICE VETERAN TAKEN BY DEATH

Ronald N. Nyblett, Former Officer of R.N.W.M.P., Succumbs Here—Funeral on Monday

Funeral services for Ronald N. Nyblett, retired veteran of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, who died at the Royal Jubilee Hospital Thursday, will be conducted Monday at 2 p.m., at St. Matthias' Church. The remains are resting at Haywards' B.C. Funeral Chapel.

Mr. Nyblett was born in Kent, England, sixty-eight years ago, and came to Canada as a young man. For a number of years he served with the R.N.W.M.P. In the South African campaign he was with the Lord Strathcona Horse.

The deceased was veterinary inspector for the Dominion Department of Agriculture after his retirement from the police, and had resided here for four years.

He is survived by his widow, at the family residence, 1739 Hollywood Crescent; one sister in England and two nieces and one nephew in Calgary.

NANAIMO, March 1.—Mrs. Rachael Dykes, aged seventy-eight, born in Cumberland, England, and a resident of Nanaimo for forty-six years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. Wilkinson, Kennedy Street, tonight. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and Court Progress, A.O.F. She is survived by three sons, Watson Dykes, M.D., Vancouver; Joseph, Nanaimo; John, Powell River, and two daughters, Mrs. Harry Clark, Nanaimo, and Mrs. M. J. McKelvie, Washington. Mrs. Rachael was the widow of the late Mr. Michael Wilkinson, Nanaimo. The remains are at Chapman's Chapel.

GAME RESERVE IS SUGGESTED

Vancouver Island Sportsmen Favor New Sanctuary at Bald Mountain

Establishment of a new game reserve in the vicinity of Bald Mountain; reduction in the daily bag limit for ducks and many other resolutions dealing with hunting and fishing on Vancouver Island, received the unanimous endorsement of the delegates attending a meeting of the Affiliated Fish and Game Associations of Vancouver Island, held recently at Duncan.

Representatives from Duncan, Ladysmith, Nanaimo, Port Alberni and Victoria attended the parley, which was one of the most successful for many seasons, according to Major Roger Monteith, president of the Victoria and District Fish and Game Association, and one of the local delegates. Elbeek Wilson, Norman Lord and Edward Clayards were the other Victoria representatives attending the meeting.

THE PROPOSALS
The complete list of proposals will be sent as suggestions to the Provincial Fish and Game Board. They are as follows: That the open season for deer be from September 14 to December 15, with a bag limit of three bucks and no does; that the trout fishing season remain the same as last year, from March 1 to November 14; that blue grouse shooting open with the deer shooting; that the duck season be from October 19 to January 31, with the bag limit reduced to fifteen ducks per day, with a limit of thirty to be in one person's possession at any one time; that regulations and control of shooting clubs be left to the discretion of the game department, and that the bounty on cougars be raised to $20.

Members of the Victoria and District Fish and Game Association approved of these suggestions at a meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce here some weeks prior to the Island gathering at Duncan.

with the United States dollar here. (As New York the pound closed at $48.15, a loss of nearly five cents in two days.) Measured by the French gold franc, the pound was down to eleven shillings and eightpence.

The blunt statement of Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, that no stabilization was in prospect in the near future, likely touched off the new drop. But also figuring were the British deficit on the international balance of payments in gold, the large increase in British Government subsidies, the adverse trade balance and the belief—correct or incorrect—that further decline was in prospect.

MARKETS UNDISTURBED
All markets seemed to be taking the current weakness with equanimity. The Financial News declared the "half-hearted attitude of the London authorities has given rise to the view on the Continent that the British Government is in favor of a renewed depreciation of sterling for political reasons," and added: "There is reason to believe those who assume our authorities would like to see the sterling-dollar rate much lower are not far wrong."

The Telegraph asserted that if the decline was not arrested, "big questions may soon be forced to the front for settlement," saying: "I want to say to you and to this House I would not stand for arrest. I would use force."

Mr. Veniot based his utterance on a newspaper telegram handed to him which said: "Cranksaw, assistant prosecutor in Bronfman case, charges Veniot in contempt of court for charging R.C.M.P. with third degree methods while case proceeding."

TECHNICAL CONTEMPT
MONTREAL, March 1 (CP).—Although he realized no action could be taken against former Postmaster-General Peter Veniot for remarks he made in the House of Commons concerning the alleged use of third-degree methods by Royal Canadian Mounted Police, James Cranksaw, special Dominion Government prosecutor in the $5,000,000 liquor conspiracy case, declared here tonight: "I still think that for anyone to pass remarks such as Mr. Veniot made while a case is pending technically constitutes a contempt of court."

"I know nothing of it, and I doubt very much the possibility of a writ being issued," Judge Jules Desmarais commented here tonight on a report from Ottawa, that former Postmaster-General Peter Veniot had claimed to have received information he was about to be served with a writ charging him with contempt of court.

Judge Desmarais is now presiding over the preliminary hearing of seven accused charged with participation in an alleged $5,000,000 liquor conspiracy uncovered by Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

During the hearing today Judge Desmarais stated he had never been given any evidence that the R.C.M.P. used third-degree methods in the present case or in any other.

LAUNCH CAMPAIGN TO FIGHT CANCER

eral recalled that in 1926 a total of 7,614 persons in Canada died of cancer, and that the figure had risen by 1933 to 10,646 deaths. "I am told," he said, "that the public's knowledge of present-day facilities for the diagnosis and treatment of cancer is not much better than it was in respect to tuberculosis twenty years ago."

His Excellency said the director of one of the largest and oldest radium institutes for the treatment of cancer in this Dominion states that 25 per cent of all cancer cases that come to that institute are cured. In his opinion the ratio of cures would be raised 75 per cent, if only the public and physicians would co-operate in reporting cases in the early stages of the disease.

CENTRALIZATION ESSENTIAL
"It is essential," he declared, "that there should be some central source of assistance in this cause. Therefore, it has been decided that the silver jubilee of His Majesty can be permanently commemorated in no more fitting manner than by the creation of a permanent anti-cancer fund."

The Governor-General referred to the fact that Lady Bessborough is especially anxious to be associated with me in commending to you this great cause. All contributions should be sent to her and they would be acknowledged.

Prime Minister Bennett's speech told the nation-wide audience it was asked to contribute to the fund "in order to make possible the work of investigation and demonstration in cancer research," and suggested that "possibly some Canadian may, like Banting, make all mankind his debtor, and discover the cause and cure for this relentless foe."

SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPHS

Earlier in his speech the Premier referred to Sir Frederick Banting's discovery of the insulin treatment for diabetes, "one of the greatest medical triumphs of the century." He recalled also the work of the late Professor and Mrs. Curie, French scientists, who demonstrated that radium emanations could be used for cancer treatment.

It would be difficult, Mr. King said, to imagine an act of thanksgiving more suitable than the offering of our loyalty and affection to be devoted to scientific research and to the alleviation of suffering in our own Dominion.

The Countess ended the programme with a brief appeal, saying: "I am only going to add a very few words to what you have already heard this evening. I believe that the men and women of the Dominion are anxious to have a lasting memorial of their love and respect for Their Majesties. I believe, too, that it is impossible to have a better memorial than this trust fund, which is launched to work against this dreadful disease. I am asking you all to send me a dollar, or anything more you are able to spare, so that this national memorial may be worthy of a great Dominion. And now, good night."

IN NEW ERA OF MERCHANDISING
Speaker Says Co-operation Now Established Part of Business Structure

VANCOUVER, March 1 (CP).—Co-operation, either voluntary or involuntary, is an established part of our business structure, J. G. Robson, chairman, said in his annual address to the British Columbia division of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association tonight. He was referring to marketing legislation.

"There seems to be a growing feeling throughout the country that the heyday of 'rugged individualism' is passed, and that we definitely are entering a new era in merchandising under which the producer is quite definitely his brother's keeper," Mr. Robson stated.

MUST BE FLEXIBLE
Of other recent legislation, he did not feel at ease as to the possible effect of eight-hour-day legislation on British Columbia industry. It was necessary in a province whose industrial development was in a large measure in a pioneering stage, that any such regulation, however desirable it might be, be administered with considerable flexibility as the case with provincial laws of this nature. If applied rigidly or by rule of thumb, hardship would be worked on both employees and employers.

"There can be no question that business in British Columbia is on the up grade," the chairman stated.

WELSH FOREFATHERS
Rev. Clem Davies, D.D., in responding to the toast to Wales, as proposed by Walter Jeanne, past president of the society, said its people were the direct descendants of the Israelites, and that Wales was the paternal country of all the British people.

The speaker went on to express his pleasure with the views advanced by Mayor Leeming regarding the present.

"Wales is the most beautiful place in the world, and British Columbia is second," said Mr. Jeanne in describing the beauties and cities of that country.

Mrs. W. C. Williams sang a Welsh air and Mrs. W. Jones sang the Welsh "All Through the Night." Mrs. Rhonwen Mason was the accompanist.

Thomas Uphill, M.P.P., Labor member for Fernie, and Vancouver M.P.P. C.C.F. member for Vancouver East, were introduced after the dinner.

LOYD GEORGE
Dr. Davies, at the S.O.E. Hall, spoke on the subject, "Needed Today: Another David Lloyd George." Those who contributed to the entertainment programme were: Mrs. R. Mason, piano solo; Dennis Williams, baritone solo; Mrs. W. Jones, soprano solo; Mrs. J. L. Jones, recitation; Mrs. M. A. Lewis and Mrs. Williams, vocal duet; Miss Phyllis Irish, piano solo; J. C. Thomas and Jack Jones, vocal duet; Thomas Kelway, vocal solo; Walter Jones, vocal solo; Miss Miriam Williams and Miss C. Lewis, vocal duet, and W. Little comedian.

SIAMESE KING ASSURES INCOME

Will at Least Have Fifty Thousand Dollars a Year in Case of His Abdication

LONDON, March 2 (AP).—The Daily Express, commenting on reports that King Prajadhipok of Siam would be forced to live humbly following his abdication, published today a report from Bangkok, which said the ruler before leaving Siam paid $900,000 to a life insurance company for a $50,000 annuity.

The annuity becomes payable on the date of abdication, The Express said, which probably will be proclaimed in the immediate future.

NOT CHARGING GOVERNMENT
Mr. Veniot made it clear he was not charging the Government with authorizing issue of a writ against him, and Mr. Rhodes said he would be very much surprised if any such instruction had been issued.

"I was not blaming the Department of Justice at all," said Mr. Veniot. "I wanted to know whether they had heard anything of it, because it has been done. Suppose between now and Monday an attempt is made to arrest me. You know, I want to say to you and to this House I would not stand for arrest. I would use force."

Mr. Veniot based his utterance on a newspaper telegram handed to him which said: "Cranksaw, assistant prosecutor in Bronfman case, charges Veniot in contempt of court for charging R.C.M.P. with third degree methods while case proceeding."

Lacrosse Players Injured in Crash

ST. DAVID'S, Ont., March 1 (CP).—A Buffalo, N.Y., taxidriver, John Laux, was killed almost instantly, and five St. Catharines lacrosse players were injured today when the cab in which they were riding side-swiped a truck driven by Henry Nelson, St. Catharines.

The accident occurred near here. Those injured were Charles Hempill, Walter Copeland, Joseph Cheever, Harold Manning and Carl Madson.

WELSH MARK ANNIVERSARY

Mayor David Leeming and Rev. Clem Davies, Speak Before Gathering

Provincial, civic and municipal leaders joined with a large gathering of Victoria Welsh Society members in Spencer's dining-room last night, and paid honor to Wales and its patron saint, St. David. Following the dinner, the gathering adjourned to the S.O.E. Hall, where an entertainment programme was enjoyed.

Mayor David Leeming was the principal speaker at the dinner, and he replied to the toast of "Our Adopted Country." Only by a complete change in the economic policy between the Provincial Government and the cities will it be possible to survive, the Mayor stated in referring to the financial difficulties facing many cities in Canada today.

"We have got to take from property only that which property can earn, not what it might earn," the speaker pointed out. He asserted that taxes should be levied on earnings and incomes and not be piled up on property.

"I have said this repeatedly, but the people refuse to listen." The people of Canada were not interested in economics, the Mayor went on to say.

ENDORSES PLAN
He said he endorsed the plan put forward last night at the City Temple by Lieut.-Colonel W. G. McKendrick, D.S.O., lecturer for the British-Israel World Federation. This plan, advanced under the title of "Sound Money," called for the issuance of currency by the Government for home-building projects.

Continuing, the speaker told the gathering of the great need for everyone to follow the Biblical commandment, "Do unto others as ye would they do unto you." "Until our nature is changed, individually, we are not going to come out of the troubles we are in. We must become more loving and less selfish," he continued.

Mayor Leeming also spoke of a tour through Northern Wales in 1919, and of the great beauty of that country.

Gives Address

"Today we face a cruel and relentless enemy that for nearly six years has held us in its grip of iron. What shall we do? Sit idly and twiddle our thumbs while we wait for Santa Claus, or shall we get out and help ourselves," said T. H. Elick, secretary of the Tourist Trade Development Association, in a talk before Native Sons of Canada on Thursday evening.

"I believe tourist trade development is the answer to the question," the speaker continued. "Look at our marvellous climate, low death rate, accessibility, wonderful scenery unequalled by any that I have seen in my extensive travels. If we got our fair share of the annual tourist business, the Island would benefit by $14,000,000."

BRING INDUSTRY

Mr. Elick went on to show how tourists had brought industries, increased population and wealth to other sections of North America and Europe which capitalized on their natural assets and made a bold bid for business. He described the five-year plan of the 250 members of the Tourist Trade Development Association and its committees to deal with sports, amusements, pageants, military and naval displays designed to attract visitors from afar.

"This golden shower of $14,000,000 is waiting; all we need is one big co-operative effort. Too many of us have the 'let George do it' complex, and we must not let anything stand in our way," Mr. Elick went on. He told the Native Sons how towns on all parts of Vancouver Island were ready to co-operate with the Victoria committee in making the Island a great tourist resort second to none in the world.

Display of British Posters to Tour Canada

"A real advance has been made in applying art to industry, and there is no reason why posters displayed should not please; if we have got to have posters, let us have them beautiful," declared Sir Francis Ploud, K.C.B. (inset), High Commissioner for the United Kingdom, in opening the exhibition of British posters at the National Gallery of Canada. A large and distinguished gathering was present to witness the opening of the exhibition, and keen interest was displayed in the colorful collection of posters, two of which are shown above. The exhibit will remain in Ottawa till the end of February, after which it will be shown at the leading art centres of Canada.

Officers for 1935

COL. LORNE ROSS, D.S.O.

For the eleventh consecutive year, Col. Lorne Ross, D.S.O., was elected president of the British Campaigners' Branch, Canadian Legion, when members met Thursday night.

P. T. Stearn was chosen vice-president, and W. J. Edwards honorary secretary-treasurer. Those named to the executive committee were: Major A. E. Christie, D.S.O., Capt. J. Perry, O.B.E., S. Meads and C. Bodman. Capt. R. P. Matheson was selected representative to the district council.

PLAN BANQUET

Plans were made by the branch to hold a banquet March 28 to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the Riel Rebellion. Invitations will be sent to more than thirty veterans of that campaign who reside in Victoria and vicinity.

During the evening motion pictures of the Gulf of Georgia and Puget Sound, fishing for steelhead on this Coast, buffaloes on the Canadian prairies, views of Jasper Park, and commercial fishing in Nova Scotia were shown by C. R. Ferris, of the Provincial Bureau of Information.

Major K. B. Spyring gave an interesting account of the South African campaign, and other reminiscences were given by Major C. R. Robert, Capt. W. Winkel, Capt. W. T. Warren and others.

Echoes From The Gallery

Norman Whitaker, E. E. Winch, Herbert Anscomb and C. H. Tupper, continued the budget debate yesterday in the Legislature. Mrs. Dorothy Steeves adjourned debate for the day and will speak on Monday at 2:30 p.m. The entire sitting was given to speeches, several fine addresses being made.

John Price and Thomas Uphill shared honors among Welshmen in the House, each displaying letters on his desk in honor of St. David's Day.

Ninety-five persons left the provincial service last year, eleven through deaths. Twenty were discharged, forty-four resigned and twenty others were superannuated. The Provincial Secretary has replied to questions in the House. Resignations were requested in a number of instances. Permanent appointments during the year numbered seventy-three, exclusive of an unstated number of temporary appointments.

Rev. Robert Connell, Leader of the Opposition, has filed notice of motion asking the House to go on record "as favoring the inauguration of an economic system based upon the principle of production, to fulfill all human needs, rather than for the making of profits for individuals or corporations," with the proposal that Ottawa be asked to make provincial introduction of such a system possible.

Public accounts and municipal committees of the Legislature will meet again on Monday morning, followed on Thursday by the private bills panel, the latter to discuss charter amendments to the Vancouver Incorporation Act.

Provincial relief figures for January, released yesterday, indicate a reduction of 10,230 in total numbers, directly and indirectly in receipt of relief in British Columbia, compared with January, 1934. The totals included 38,364 married and single persons, with 57,437 dependents; exclusive of 7,760 men in National Defence camps.

Provincial motor licence plates for 1935 should be in place on all vehicles now on the road, and prosecutions will start after a preliminary check-up has taken place, provincial motor licence officials said yesterday.

The C.C.F. organization in Victoria has postponed again the tentative date of Federal nomination in this riding, until March 16, it was said yesterday by the parliamentary secretary of the party.

Back in 1913, when Armstrong City was incorporated, someone left out a parcel of land which Armstrong believed belonged within the municipal limits. This defect is now to be remedied by a special act of the Legislature, introduced this week by Hon. A. W. Gray. The measure will be retroactive in scope by twenty years, something of a record in British Columbia annals, it is understood. Omission in the incorporation bill was only discovered when Armstrong attempted to sell the land in question for tax sale last year. It was then found that title to it did not exist.

Amendments to the British Columbia moratorium law will be introduced in the House next week by the Attorney-General. The purpose of the change has not yet been stated.

REUNION IS SET FOR EASTERNERS

There is to be a reunion of the Old Boys of Bruce, Huron and Grey this evening in the A.O.F. Hall, Cormorant Street. The event is to take the form of a dinner, commencing at 6:30, to be followed by the presentation of a film, "Come to Scotland." The remainder of the evening will be spent in a social way with dancing.

The dinner will be served in the dining-room of the hall. Owing to the fact that Percy Watson, secretary of the organization, is ill, personal invitations are not being sent out to members, who are asked to accept the announcement as an invitation and to bring a friend with them.

CALLED TO REST

There passed away on Thursday, at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Mrs. Jessie Cookley, aged sixty-nine years, born in England and a resident of this city for the past twenty-four years. Her late residence was at 1026 Yates Street. Funeral announcements are to be made later.

LAST RITES TODAY

The funeral of George William Rowbottom, who passed away on Thursday morning, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the chapel of Sands Mortuary Limited. Rev. E. F. Church will officiate, and the remains will be laid to rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

"Blazing New Trails" will be the subject of an illustrated address by Rev. Nelson Harkness in Centennial United Church on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. In the morning at 11 o'clock Rev. C. G. MacKenzie will continue a series of challenging sermons, taking as his theme, "The Personal Propagation of Religion."

ANNUAL BUDGET
IS PRESENTEDNew Prowler Car and Motorcycle Recommended by Chief to Police Board

The annual police budget presented at Friday's meeting of the police commission showed expenditures amounting to approximately $105,000, which is slightly higher than the 1934 estimate of $104,902. Included in the estimates were amounts for a used car to replace one of the prowler cars, which has now traveled 67,000 miles and reached the end of its period of usefulness.

The chief suggested that the commission provide $400 for this replacement. He also recommended replacement of one of the motor-cycles at a cost of $600.

The budget will be considered when the estimates are brought up sometime next week.

MAKES PLEA FOR CAMP DWELLERSCowper Rochfort Calls Upon Public to Aid in Renewing Hope for Unemployed

Cowper Rochfort, veteran of two wars and a frontiersman nearly all his life, is devoting a large part of his time at present in trying to ameliorate the condition of those who are in the unemployment camp at Jordan River. His contention is that the general public should manifest a much deeper interest in the lot of the inmates of the camp, by giving them a new hope in life, which, he says, does not exist among them today. In his appeal for those in the camp, Mr. Rochfort makes a special plea for the young boys who are compelled, by circumstances over which they have no control, to spend their time there.

The situation which exists, says Mr. Rochfort, is one that fosters in the minds of these boys a feeling of discontent. They feel they are outcasts, with no hope for the future.

"Among these," he said, "are many very fine boys, who, given different environment, could be given a new outlook upon life." Through the assistance of others, Mr. Rochfort has been able to get a piano and a radio in the camp, and there is a large concert hall available for the holding of entertainments. He suggests that organizations like the social service clubs, and various entertaining bodies, should hold entertainments there. The camp can be communicated with and dates arranged. Wednesday is a good night, usually for such a social entertainment.

these boys and in this connection he advocates that the farm that surrounds the camp be utilized for the arousing of interest in agriculture. There are about forty acres of cleared land there and also some cows, and perhaps chickens could be maintained.

Those of the camp should be encouraged to carry on the work in this connection and thus get them away from the pick and shovel work on which they are now engaged, and which they feel leads nowhere. He feels the back to the land call is the hope of the future and that these boys should be instructed in the cultivation of land and the care of animals. He suggests the Government be induced to offer competitive prizes among the boys to encourage them in the work and by purchasing supplies raised at the camp, instead of using evaporated milk and other ready-to-use products.

If something along this line was done, Mr. Rochfort believes those who are discontented today and ruled by bitterness might have hope renewed.

KING ANCHORS
IN ROYAL BAYSalvage Ship With Japanese
Freighter in Tow Arrived
During Night

With the crippled Japanese freighter, Misaki Maru in tow, the St. Salvage King reached Royal Bay last night and anchored. It was last Sunday morning that the freighter's crankshaft broke and help was requested. The Salvage King left Victoria at 1 o'clock that afternoon for the ship's position off Estevan Point and arrived alongside the disabled craft at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Too stormy to get a line aboard the ship until late in the afternoon, it was 7 o'clock that evening before the Salvage King started to tow the Taihei Maru to Esquimalt. She was then making five knots, but with the wind increasing and blowing pretty steadily from the south-east, at times no progress at all was made. The distance covered by the King in rushing to the assistance of the freighter occupied just twenty-five hours, while it required just four times that long to get back into Royal Bay.

MUNICIPAL FINANCE

Mr. Thomas Bradshaw, of Toronto, is now investigating the finances of Vancouver at the request of the bondholders. He will make a report on what he regards as a solution of the problem raised by the Mayor's claim that Vancouver cannot go on paying the present rates of interest on its municipal bonds. Mr. Bradshaw, fortunately, is not a theorist in financial matters. He is the practical man of business who believes in the sanctity of contracts. He is well versed in the situation in the country respecting municipalities. He knows that the money to finance municipalities has been provided for the building of schools, for the provision of water and electric services, for the construction of sewers and sidewalks, for hospitals and libraries and so forth. The bonds are held by trust companies, by life insurance companies, by fraternal societies and by private individuals. In the main they are held either by or on behalf of those endeavoring to provide an income for their maintenance or necessities. In a word, the money was loaned to the people by the people.

Canada has 4,280 municipalities with outstanding debt obligations of $1,297,650,000. Of this amount 69 per cent is payable in Canada, 24 per cent in the United States and 7 per cent in Great Britain. Since 1932, of these municipalities, 170 have defaulted on their obligations to the extent of $141,150,000, or 10.9 per cent of the total. Two-thirds of the aggregate of default has been in Ontario. In the Maritime Provinces there has not been default by any municipality. The Mayor of Vancouver takes the standpoint that the taxpayers have been the victims of "usury." He has made a fetish of the word "usury," which means interest, but which is generally accepted as meaning "exorbitant interest," a term which does not apply to what Vancouver is paying for its borrowings. In the use of words, however, the imagination of the Mayor of Vancouver runs riot. The fact is that Vancouver owes the money because it borrowed it, and it borrowed a great deal more than it should have because of policies which, in the light of subsequent events, can only be regarded as wanton. The city has had its dance of expenditure and should be willing to pay the piper. Communities owe money because they borrowed money, and did so at legal rates of interest. The policy of paying debts is one of simple honesty, one demanded by any and every creed of Christian morality.

ITALY AND ETHIOPIA

It would seem to be the purpose of the Italian Government to arouse enthusiasm in that country for a campaign against Ethiopia, because of certain outrages there in which Italian citizens lost their lives. The Italian press has been printing accounts of the Battle of Adowa, fought in 1896, in which the forces of Emperor Menelik defeated Italian troops. It was after that battle that the independence of Ethiopia was recognized. The Emperor added greatly to his prestige. His people regarded him as descended from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba and a ruler by divine right. Ethiopia and Abyssinia are names variously used for the kingdom, but the official name is Ethiopia.

The present Emperor, Haile Selassie, was proclaimed in April, 1931. The state has an area of 350,000 square miles and a population of 10,000,000. To the north lies Egypt and to the east the Red Sea, but between Ethiopia and the Red Sea there is a narrow strip of British, French and Italian territory. In 1928 Italy permitted Ethiopia to establish a seaport on the Red Sea as an outlet for her trade. Because of the mountainous character of the country Ethiopia is regarded as a stronghold in a military sense, but it may be doubted if the people are as warlike as they were under the Emperor Menelik. Italy is taking the present trouble very seriously and is dispatching 25,000 troops to supplement her forces already on the borders of Ethiopia. Her prestige in Africa undoubtedly suffered through the defeat at Adowa in 1896.

UNION LIBRARY PLANS

The residents of Vancouver Island, along with those of the Okanagan and Kootenay areas, will have an opportunity of sharing in the Carnegie Library appropriation. This is the gratifying announcement made by the Provincial Library Commission. It had been the intention of this body to confine the grant of $15,000 to one, or at the most two, of these districts. The interest, however, that has been evoked by the presentation of the scheme has led to the decision mentioned. The amount available for books under the new three-part plan will, of course, be less than if assistance were to be concentrated on one union library. It is, however, a satisfaction that though there will be less butter for each slice, every slice will get a share.

According to the Public Library Act, a plebiscite will be taken at the municipal elections next January, under which the ratepayers of each municipality or school district, as the case may be, will vote whether or not they will assume the necessary taxation. The campaign of education on the issue, which will be under the direction of Dr. Helen G. Stewart, and which is expected to be of an unusual sort, will be started first on Vancouver Island. As a preliminary step a strong committee will be set up in each of the three areas, that of Vancouver Island to be initiated next week.

NATIONAL BROADCASTING

Premier Bennett admits that "a very great body of public opinion has grown up in this country" opposed to public ownership of radio. That may well be because the Canadian Radio Commission has not solved the problem of good reception and has not provided programmes which can in any way compete successfully with broadcasts from the United States. The contention now made by the Commission is that it is suffering from lack of funds, and that if it could only secure another million dollars all its difficulties would be removed. Another million dollars would mean that national broadcasting would have to be subsidized, over and above the receipts from radio licences. It would probably permit of a few powerful stations being erected and a few more programmes made available. It would not mean that national broadcasting would be put in a position to compete with private enterprise.

The present Government broadcasting stations do not commence to operate until 5 p.m. daily. The great broadcasting systems of the United States are in operation from early in the morning until midnight daily. Radio listeners get into the habit of tuning into these, and while there is a lot of riff-raff broadcast from them, there are, as well, good programmes that include some of the best-known artists, orchestras and entertainers on the North American Continent. Canada in her national broadcasting is heavily handicapped, so heavily that an extra million dollars would not begin to solve her difficulties. If there is a growing public opinion against national ownership, as the Prime Minister admits, it would not seem to be the part of wisdom to spend more of the taxpayers' money on the venture.

AN ENVIABLE RECORD

The annual report of Chief of Police Thomas Heatley shows that Victoria passed through the year 1934 with a freedom from major crimes that almost any other city might well envy. This city's record in this respect is one that is known throughout the Dominion, and the cleanliness of its bill of health, where the Criminal Code is concerned, is a tribute to the character of the inhabitants and to the guardians of the law. The police force here, especially during recent years, has been built up to a high state of efficiency, thanks to the executive ability of Chief Heatley, who is conscientiousness itself in the discharge of his duties and who has earned the solid respect and warm-hearted appreciation of all the citizens.

It is a great asset to any city that in a time of economic stress it should be law-abiding. That is an excellent advertisement on behalf of attracting new residents and keeping those we have. In all walks of life the character of our citizenship is desirable and the members of the Police Force deserve every credit for the manner in which their duties are performed under the leadership of Chief Heatley and a Police Commission which is free from anything resembling political bias.

The language of pessimistic exaggeration is symptomatic of the mental unrest that prevails. Men talk of the world being "on the edge of an abyss," of a "great crisis being faced," of mankind having reached "the parting of the ways." That is all poppycock, because it betokens ignorance of human history. The greater the difficulties are the greater should be the courage with which they are faced. The pessimists are those who are continually looking into the depths instead of going over the top and storming and conquering whatever dangers and troubles lie in the path.

A writer says "the prevention of war is at once the greatest necessity and the greatest duty facing man today." On the contrary, the greatest necessity is spiritual attainment, and that, as well, should be the whole duty of man. Once secured, all else that is desirable will follow without benefit of legislation or the other thousand and one makeshifts of material striving.

FUNDAMENTAL ECONOMICS

"My other piece of advice, Copperfield," said Mr. Micawber, "you know. Annual income twenty pounds, annual expenditure nineteen pounds nine shillings, result happiness. Annual income twenty pounds, annual expenditure twenty pounds, result misery. The blossom is blighted, the leaf is withered, the God of day goes down upon the dreary scene, and—and in short you are forever flooded. As I am!"

A little grain of the romance is no ill ingredient to preserve and exalt the dignity of human nature, without which it is apt to degenerate into everything that is sordid, vicious and low.—Swift.

Let us have faith that right makes might; and in that faith let us, to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it.—Abraham Lincoln.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

It is better sometimes not to follow great reformers of abuses beyond the threshold of their homes.—George Eliot.

All the elements whose aid man calls in will sometimes become his masters.—Bacon.

The Canadian Press is a very competent organization. It serves the papers and readers of the papers well; but there are limits to its powers. For instance, the Canadian Press supplied the newspapers of the Far West with condensed reports of the opening of the Ontario Legislature, but it was obliged to omit from its reports many details which were even more interesting than the formal ceremonies. We have read with relish some of those omitted details as published in the Ontario newspapers. Many of the papers printed pictures of the pageant, including the procession to the House, in which there was a guard of honor, with feathers waving, swords rattling and guns booming.

Premier Hepburn, that stern and simple Spartan, declared that his was to be a poor man's Government, with no pomp and ceremony and no nonsense of that kind; that there were to be no social functions, no formal dinners and no informal afternoon teas, with a clatter of cups and jingling of spoons. Yet there was the procession which looked very much like a pageant, with the Lieutenant-Governor (who was to be abolished like the fust and feathers) at the head of it, and the master of the administration following meekly in his footsteps. Mr. Hepburn may be first in the hearts of his Ontario countrymen. He may have hoped to be first in the procession, but he (as we suggested some days ago) evidently is not first in the hearts of his Ontario countrywomen.

The ceremonial at the opening of the Legislature appears to have been even more elaborate than usual. There was no state dinner. There was no formal afternoon tea, but the apartments of the House were filled with men and women, and men and women, drinking afternoon tea and eating thin sandwiches and nibbling cakes and other confections. Grit men may be amenable to stern, Spartan discipline, but wilful Grit women, like all other women, will have their way. And the wilful Grit women, although their men folk suffered defeat in the election, asserted their social independence of the new political dictator by providing an afternoon tea which was open to all regardless of political affiliations, and the newspapers report that many Liberal members of the House, even some Cabinet Ministers, partook of the refreshments thus provided. The free and independent women of Ontario evidently do not tremble with fear at the terrible frown of Hepburn, the new revolutionary and reformer.

There was another item in the programme at the opening of the Ontario Legislature which the Canadian Press did not make a note of or considered not worth mentioning. In the Speech from the Throne, prepared, of course, by the Premier, there was no mention of the pending Jubilee Year of His Majesty the King and of the ceremonies which will attend it in all parts of the Empire. Hepburn could not by taking action abolish the Lieutenant-Governor. In the formal procession he had to walk behind the royal representative. It may be he believes that by ignoring the King he can abolish him, too; that then there will be no order of precedence, and that the full effulgence of the light shed upon the throne will be his portion. Who can say what is in the mind of this extraordinary man?

As on other occasions in the history of the world, the Limes are out of joint. There are crises developing almost everywhere, and many political dreamers and revolutionaries are striving for leadership. As the Chinese said to Alice in her visit to Wonderland, "We are all mad here." Most of us profess to have discarded superstitions and fairy tales and to have become intensely sane and practical, yet the politicians are spouting economic fairy tales about a dream world in which there will be abundance of everything for everybody without work or effort.

In the beginning of physical life the individual had to be dependent upon his own individual resources. That social and economic condition doubtlessly accounted for the ancient saying that if a man will not work neither shall he eat. The individual is no longer independent, and legitimately lives his dependent position by pointing out that the order has so changed that he is no longer in a position to maintain himself because of lack of opportunities. Hence the saying upon the lips of many that "the world owes me a living. Given the opportunity, I am willing to earn my own living; but, lacking opportunity, I have the right to live. I cannot live upon my individual resources, I cannot be permitted to starve in the midst of an abundance."

In my case the parable of the talents does not apply. Take away from those and give to me. It is the duty of the community to support me if it cannot furnish me with the opportunity to which I am entitled." That sums up the situation, and we do not envy those in authority whose duty it is to bring order out of such a chaos of public opinion.

ADMINISTRATION OF PENSIONS
Sir—Mr. Herbert Kent's complaints about the high cost of administering mothers' pensions in British Columbia to The Colonist, of February 23, headed "The Unlucky Taxpayer," are based upon complete misunderstanding of the figures which he quotes. His letter says:

"Figures are given showing that it cost $14,830 to administer $801,697 in pensions in the year 1930, whereas (note this carefully) in the year 1934 it cost $24,621 to administer $953,070 in pensions. In other words it cost $10,000 more to administer over $200,000 less."

It is quite true that administration expenses have gone up. But Mr. Kent fails to recognize that during the same period pension payments have greatly declined—and that there is a clear causal relation between these two facts.

Administrative costs were definitely increased a few years ago, when there was reorganization of the mothers' pensions administration to meet the problem of the mounting costs of this service. Payments on mothers' pensions grew from $480,235 in 1921 to $842,242 in 1931 without corresponding growth in population or in need for this type of social assistance. Departmental analysis of the situation revealed that many women who were not properly qualified were drawing pensions, that others were drawing full allowances who could readily do with part allowances, and that other abuses, costly to the taxpayer, and of no benefit to the deserving mothers and children for whom the pension legislation had been enacted, had crept into the scheme. It appeared clearly that more well-trained, competent visitors were needed to check up on applicants and maintain friendly contact with pension recipients, in order to eliminate these abuses and to cut down unnecessary expenditures.

The results of this new policy were apparent in the first year of its partial operation, when the cost of pensions fell to $803,298 as compared with $842,242 for the previous year—a saving of $40,000 in one year. Still smaller expenditures of $658,049 in 1933 and $593,671 in 1934 may be accounted for both by decreases in the amounts paid to mothers, as part of a general financial policy of forced retrenchment, and by more careful administration under the new policy.

Moreover, all of the increase in administrative expense that Mr. Kent dislikes has not been on account of mothers' pensions. The figures for 1934 that he quotes cover, also part of the costs of administering poor relief in unorganized territory and care of neglected and dependent children, adoptions, and burial of indigents, important and extensive work that is now carried on by the welfare department, whereas the 1930 figures apply to mothers' pensions only.

In spite of the above facts which indicate a reduction in the total expenditure of mothers' allowances, and a slight increase in administrative costs, it is significant to remember that these trends have not in any way tended to bring the rate of payments in mothers' allowance cases below that of other provinces, or to increase the administration cost beyond that of other provinces. The present rate of payment of mothers' allowances in British Columbia is still larger in amounts actually paid than anywhere else in the Dominion and at the same time the administration costs are just as low, if not lower, than in other provinces. Reference to the annual reports of the Mothers' Pensions Departments of other provinces will reveal that the administration cost in most of them rates as high as 6 per cent compared to 4 per cent in this Province.

With Mr. Kent's general plea for economy in public administration there can be no quarrel. But if administrative costs are cut too much, the resulting losses may be many times the savings from lower salaries rolls. There is no question but that the slight increase in mothers' pensions administrative costs since 1930 has saved the taxpayer of this Province thousands upon thousands of dollars. The records of the Provincial Secretary's Department prove this beyond a shadow of a doubt.

Madame Yvette Guilbert once told this story to illustrate the difficulty that foreigners have with the English language, owing to one word having many different meanings. A mother said to her daughter, "Don't you think Gus runs rough?" And the daughter answered with a faint blush, "Yes, mamma, and yet he says he shaves every day!"

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of March 2, 1885)
General Grant's Health—The illness of General Grant has assumed a hopeless character. He has appeared on the great of the issue, and he suffers intolerable pain. There is little doubt that America will soon be called on to mourn the death of her greatest captain.
Public Hall—Oscar Hill district will build a public hall for the use of the settlement. A meeting will be held tomorrow evening to fix upon a site.
Personal News—Captain Irving, manager of the C.P.N. Company, will leave for Eastern Canada tomorrow. Dr. Drake, Q.C., has gone to Punt Sound on important legal business. R. Reeson, of the District, returned yesterday from an extended trip to the Interior. J. R. Phillips left for New Westminster yesterday morning. Judge McAllister, of Alaska, C. E. Remont, his wife and Mr. Bass were among the steamer Mexico's passengers. The Hon. Mr. McDonald was elected vice-president for British Columbia of the Dominion Rifle Association at the annual meeting held in Ottawa recently.

SEEK AID FOR UNEMPLOYED

Anglican Synod Sees Real Need for Work Among Helpless Citizens

Declaring it was the duty of Christian people to study the underlying causes of unemployment with a view to their removal, and calling upon the clergy and the people of every parish to befriend the unemployed in their distress, Dean Cecil S. Quinlan, presented the following resolution at the final session of the thirty-fifth Synod of the Diocese of British Columbia.

"Resolved: That this Synod is so convinced that it is the duty of Christian people to study seriously the underlying causes of unemployment, with a view to their removal and to use their influence to strengthen public opinion in its demand, that financial, industrial and economic policy should not transgress those moral and religious principles, which are the only sure foundations of social order.

BEFRIEND HELPLESS
This Synod also calls upon the clergy and people of every parish to do all in their power to befriend the unemployed in their distress and actively to co-operate in local efforts to assist them." It was unanimously adopted and brought forth much comment by various ministers, who told of the great need for such work.

Rev. E. O. Robathan, Westholme, told the gathering of his experience when he went disguised among the unemployed in the east end of Vancouver. For three days he slept in a refuge home, ate and travelled with the men. He stated there was a great need for the Christian churches to take definite action to alleviate the distress and suffering of the unemployed.

AMONG UNEMPLOYED
Rev. Alan Gardiner, St. Paul's Church, Esquimalt, told of his investigations conducted into the relief camps. He asserted that the men there were not "bums," but "real men," and that in Vancouver there were fifty lawyers on relief.

Rev. Alan Green, of the Columbia Coast Mission, Quathiaski Cove, told of his work among discharged prisoners, who had sought an escape by going to the West Coast of the Island. He strongly urged that a school of contact be established, as a joint effort on the part of all churches, where men of distressed minds might be allowed to "pour out their troubles" and receive advice from ministers.

Major P. V. Longstaff announced his intention of starting a fund for the purpose of bringing many of the articles of handicraft, made by men in the relief camps, to Victoria, for display and possible sale. He told the Synod that as a result of a small showing of such articles at the recent Y.M.C.A. Hobby Fair, unemployed handicraftsmen had been able to sell a number of articles.

FINANCE MEASURES

Three other resolutions were introduced and were referred to the finance committee for consideration:

1. "That a select committee be appointed to investigate all aspects of the situation covering the insurance of church property losses by fire."

2. "That a valuation be made of all church property in the diocese for insurance purposes by a fully qualified and competent valuator."

3. "To consider the question of pooling expenses of lay delegates to the Synod."

The following were elected delegates to the Provincial Synod: Dean Quinlan, Rev. N. E. Smith, St. Barnabas Church; Canon A. E. DeL. Nunn, Rev. A. Gardner, and G. Carter, H. M. S. Bell, F. W. Blankenbach, Mr. Knight, with S. Hawkins as substitute.

RESTORATION FUND

In the diocese last year $15,600.41 was contributed to the restoration fund, and throughout Canada $62,000 was contributed, it was announced by Mr. Carter in presenting a report that met with enthusiasm. Cost in connection with the restoration fund in the diocese amounted to only one per cent of the collections, he stated.

Steady progress and increased interest was reported for the Good Hope Mission by Rev. Clarence Lee.

PRIMATE COMING

The Most Rev. Derwyn Owen, Bishop of Toronto and Primate of all Canada, will arrive in Victoria on March 23, the Synod was informed. It was planned to hold a large meeting on Sunday, March 24, in the Cathedral, at which time the Primate would speak. He will be accompanied by C. L. Foster, Toronto, former staff inspector and secretary of the pensions board of the Bank of Commerce. They will give a series of addresses on "The Restoration Fund" and "Evangelization of Christian Life."

tomed ourselves for the last twenty years to live in a Packard style on a Ford licence," Mr. Ansonb declared.

It was a "back to Ottawa" budget, the Victoria member continued. Whatever might be said of the former regime, it had cut Provincial costs between $7,000,000 and $9,000,000 in its last two years.

The present budget ignored the municipalities and held out an intangible relief one year hence. Meanwhile, there was the spectacle of the two largest cities in the province openly saying they could not continue to function, and might have to repudiate their obligations unless aid was forthcoming.

PLEADS FOR CITIES

It was little use for the Province to set its house in order, while two cities with a combined debt half that of the Province were left unaided to break down public confidence. There should be immediate steps to grant temporary relief to the municipalities, pending final solution of their problems.

With estimated Provincial revenues $3,000,000 greater, the plea of the municipalities could not be justly ignored, especially when grants had been withdrawn from them to bolster Provincial finances. With a Federal windfall of $750,000 and increased gas receipts of $100,000, there must be the leeway for some assistance, he suggested.

The Government, he noted, was perpetrating the practice of leaving out of the budget full sinking funds provision and unemployment relief outlays. A balance, without the two major items of expense, should not be found difficult. Appreciation of existing funds had been cited, but their future appreciation might be more speculative.

I GUESS I'M JUST NATURALLY SKINNY. CAN'T GAIN AN OUNCE

I SAID THE SAME THING UNTIL I DISCOVERED KELP-A-MALT

FOLKS WHO ARE NATURALLY SKINNY NOW GAIN 5 LBS. IN ONE WEEK—AND FEEL FINE!

Thousands of thin, pale, rundown folks—and even "Naturally Skinny" men and women—are amazed at this new easy way to put on healthy needed pounds quickly. Gains of 15 to 20 lbs. in one month—4 lbs. in a week—are reported regularly.

Kelp-A-Malt, the new mineral concentrate from the sea-free from drugs—gains right down to the cause of thinness, underweight conditions and adds weight through a "2 way in one" natural process.

First, its rich supply of easily assimilable minerals nourish the digestive glands which produce the juices that enable you to digest the fats and starches in your daily diet. . . the weight-making elements in food. Second, Kelp-A-Malt provides an amazingly effective digestive substance which actually digests 4 times its own weight of the food-building foods you eat. Third, Kelp-A-Malt's natural FOOD TONIC stimulates and nourishes the internal glands which control assimilation—the process of converting digested food into new flesh, new strength and energy. These Kelp-A-Malt tablets contain iron, zinc and copper and a pound of squashes or 1 1/2 lbs. of fresh tomatoes, more calcium than 6 eggs; more phosphorus than 1 1/2 lbs. carrots; more FOOD IODINE than 100 lbs. of beef.

Try Kelp-A-Malt for a single week and notice the difference—how much better you sleep, how ordinary stomach distress vanishes, how firm flesh appears in place of bony hollows and the new energy and strength it brings you! Prescribed and used by physicians, Kelp-A-Malt contains no drugs and is fine for children too—improves their appetites, encourages the growth of Kelp-A-Malt, the original and genuine Kelp-A-Malt tablets. There is nothing else like them and don't accept imitations and substitutes. Try Kelp-A-Malt today, and if you don't gain at least 5 lbs. of good flesh in one week the trial is free. Kelp-A-Malt costs only 49 cents a day to use and can be had at

Fashion Parade Shows Newest Creations for Sophisticated Bathers

Crystal Garden Here Is Scene of Colorful Swimming Gala and Costume Display Attended by Crowd of 1,800 Persons

WOMEN'S bathing suits, for the coming season, will be form-fitting even more than last year, according to the fashion display given last evening at the Navy League Chapter, I.O.D.E., swimming gala at the Crystal Garden. The function was attended by 1,800 persons.

Following a display of bathing creations, representing the years from 1890 to 1915, twelve picked models showed what will be worn by the sophisticated beach mermaid this year. There were shades of blue, deep violet, light orange, red, white and black in creations featuring narrow shoulder straps, halter effects, girdles and decorations in the form of a small star or ship's wheel. Jantzen Mills also showed a collection of ladies' sports wear in knitted effects, from one to three pieces. Complete color harmony was the motif of all these ensembles.

WELL-DRESSED CHILD
Hudson's Bay Company, with several diminutive models, exhibited what the well-dressed child will wear this Spring. Simplicity with absence of clashing colors was the keynote of the little sister's costumes in brick red, browns and heather mixtures. In most cases the tiny hats carried out the main color scheme. Those taking part in the parade were Thelma Ackerman, Babe Pennock, Joan Trump, Esther Ford, Marian McKimling, Loraine Pendray, Audrey Hadow, Elsie Finlayson, Joan Cudamore, Ruth Horton, Marian Millar and Joyce Anderson.

MAYOR MCGEE OUTLINES CASE

Vancouver Members Told of Financial Position of Mainland City

Mayor G. G. McGee, K.C., M.P.P., reopened diplomatic relations with Liberal members in the Legislature yesterday at a meeting at which he laid Vancouver's fiscal matters fully before Vancouver members, together with others from the private bills committee. For an hour his words traced facts and figures of the Mainland city's present position, before the meeting adjourned, with plans to meet again next week.

Hon. Gordon Sloan, K.C.; Hon. G. M. Weir and Mrs. Paul Smith, representing Vancouver ridings, were engaged at a meeting between the Cabinet and the Provincial Council of Women, and did not attend the Vancouver discussions.

MEMBERS HEAR PLEA
Gordon Wismer, S. S. McKee, Robert Wilkinson, John Price and A. M. Manson, K.C., were present. No concrete decisions were reached; it was intimated.

Mayor McGee, after the private conference, said he had laid Vancouver's financial position before the members with a view to giving them a better appreciation of the gravity of the position in which the city found itself.

It was not a question of a Government loan of $400,000, to cover Vancouver's announced shortage in its budget this year, but the more serious matter of whether the Government could afford to postpone, for a year, action needed to help Vancouver now, Mr. McGee said. He declined to make any formal statement at this time.

Building Increases—Forty building permits, representing projects valued at $41,374, were taken out by the City Hall during February. In February, 1934, thirty-eight permits to the value of $29,416 were issued. Sixty-one permits for construction valued at $61,424 have been given out since the first of the year.

Two Police Areas—The Provincial Police added Burnaby and Salmon Arm to the list of British Columbia municipalities they will now police, according to agreements ratified by the Province this week. Burnaby is to pay $25,000 for the service on a yearly basis, and Salmon Arm $14,412. Attorney-General Sloan announced.

Deputy Appointed—Meredith M. MacFarlane, formerly of the law firm of MacInnes & Arnold, Vancouver, has been appointed as deputy registrar of companies for the Province, under H. G. Garrett. It was announced at the Legislative Buildings. W. L. Llewellyn, former incumbent, resigned recently to enter private business.

Not a Speedway—Chief Thomas Heatley has intimated to the City Council that he is not in favor of making Shelbourne Street an arterial highway until sidewalks are provided, and the intersection of Hillside Avenue and Shelbourne Street is widened. The chief feels that there would be a danger of the street becoming a speedway.

First Butterfly—Signs that Spring has turned the corner are not wanting in Victoria. With flowering currants and Japanese plum trees in bloom, A. H. Martin, of 1178 Fort Street, brought a large butterfly fluttering around in a bottle into The Colonist office yesterday afternoon. It was busy in his garden when he captured it, believing its early appearance was something worth noting.

Counsel in the action, F. C. Elliott for the plaintiff, and R. C. Lowe for the defendant, are to submit reasons in writing, after which judgment will be given.

Help Out Workers—In Oak Bay the council, on the recommendation of the relief committee, presented by Councillor R. R. Taylor, decided to give a few men who were engaged upon relief work a few hours' extra time each month, so as to bring the wages for the month up to the same as allowed for those on construction work. The additional expenditures will have to be borne by the municipality.

The programme was arranged by Thomas Obee and included the following artists: George Reed, Bert Lilly, M. Glendinning, Stanley James, W. Holmes, W. Anderson, Eric Chalmers, G. Deficit Reported—Although the foster home system adopted by the Children's Aid Society has proved successful, the organization, in its annual summary, reports a deficit of $1,262.90. Total revenue for 1934 was $6,477.30, of which the city contributed $4,728. Total expenditures were $7,740.20. TOURIST COMMISSION SUGGESTED TO HOUSE

A link in the chain was his appeal for construction by this method of the West Coast Road, on Vancouver Island, as a looped scenic thoroughfare with great possibilities for its Pacific reaches. Money left by tourists yearly was new wealth, extending to all classes of people, while the stock in trade were climate and scenery and, as such, inexhaustible.

REVENUES SUBSTANTIAL
Upwards of $1,250,000 had been left in Victoria by visitors in 1933. Ninety per cent of the money, in some cases, distributed initially to hotels, restaurants, retail trade, gas and oil, amusements and in other ways, went back into local circulation almost immediately, as new blood into Victoria's circulatory system. The tourist crop reseeded itself.

In the peak year of 1930, tourists motoring through customs ports into British Columbia left $18,000,000 in the province, exclusive of those arriving by rail, boat or car, from Canadian points. It was true that this revenue had declined to $5,000,000 in 1933, but that was attributable to present economic conditions and, in part, to poor repair on the highways.

THIRD IN CANADA
British Columbia had the future to think of, and stood third among Canadian provinces in the tourist trade. The tourist industry was the only line of endeavor in which British Columbia could trade on an equal footing with Eastern Canada, and money so gained helped redress unfavorable commercial balances elsewhere. By the British Columbia industrial system.

Canadian tourist revenues as a whole were worth noting. They had been $183,000,000 in 1932, according to Federal statistics. The offset by Canadians driving abroad had been $39,000,000 in the same year, leaving a very handsome net balance to Canada, Mr. Whittaker said.

SUGGESTS ACTION
After a review of what is being done elsewhere, he closed quickly with his main submissions. These were for creation by the Province of a British Columbia Development Commission under the Ministry of Works; the commission to have departmental representation and between six and eight private citizens of known ability; besides, the whole to be operated independently and free from political influence. The commission could act as a highway board for development of scenic highways, independent of other road work of the Province.

With thousands on relief there was need to create work, but public subscription to such work could only come with assurance of productive effort on a definite plan and efficiently carried out. Contract work and definite ear-marking of a proportion of present motor revenues would assist the scheme.

Mr. Whittaker, having rounded out the essence of his plan, said he would suggest for its name the "Victory Lane Drive."

P.G.E. REPORT
C. H. Tupper, member for Similkameen, who is a director of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, delivered a conscientious report, on the peoples' railway, to the House. Speaking with some pride, Mr. Tupper showed that the P.G.E. had an enviable record, on operating account, in the last three or four

THE WINCH MURALS
Modern Liberalism, Mr. Winch continued, was attempting to solve new problems with the rusty keys of the past. If poetry would cure anything, he would make honorable members opposite, verse for verse. For vacant recesses in the walls of the assembly chamber, he would suggest a series of murals, as a new hand-writing on the wall.

These murals should contain Kipling's recipe for a manhood, "If . . ."; "By their fruit ye shall know them" and "What shall it profit a man . . . from the Bible; the Government of today is the Opposition of yesterday"; for the Minister of Finance, "Take the cash, and let the credit go"; and one for Mr. Speaker, "The Last Gentleman," the elder Mr. Winch concluded, to laughter and hearty applause.

Mrs. Dorothy Steeves (C.F.P., North Vancouver), adjourned the budget debate. The House rose at 5:05 p.m. for its third week-end, arranging to sit at 2:30 p.m. on Monday.

Sleeves Have Changed for the Spring

Sleeves have changed for the Spring. There are short sleeves with cuffs, short sleeves that puff, and three-quarter sleeves that slide up and down the arms.

Belts have also gone festive. They are broad, braided and contrasting.

Then there are patch pockets on all sorts of dresses, and tucks and drawing-peckles are more popular than ever. The cowboy neckline is new and young.

Both silks and cottons come in two-piece styling, and peasant linens and cottons are among the interesting fabrics, with stripes and dots also in the limelight.

The first dress sketched is a silk crepe with shoulder tucks, collar fastening in back, pleats front and back. It is pretty in navy with French blue collar.

The polka-dotted silk next has a removable pique collar, vest and cuffs. Buttons and belt are dark. The background of the print is dark, the dots white.

The charming frock, centre, comes in raspberry red, straw, sphere blue or black, and the material is rough crepe. The tulip collar has a contrasting drawstring cord under it. The wide belt is made of several rows of contrasting cord.

There are two inverted pleats in the back of the skirt by the by.

The fourth frock sketched is a "jelly bean" print in a number of pretty colors. Notice the pleated bodice, the youthful collar with talon side closing, and fash pleats in front and back of skirt.

The fifth frock is peasant linen with colorful cross-stitching, little stand-up collar and silk cord belt. It is split at the sides.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

CATHEDRAL

On Wednesday evening, Charles E. Blaney, of the ocean service of the C.P.R., visited Victoria for the purpose of giving the Christ Church Cathedral A.Y.P.A. a lecture on a world tour. Preliminary slides of Victoria were shown, among which was one of the Empress Hotel, the setting of which, in his opinion, is surpassed by none other in the world. Mr. Blaney's Gardens were shown which, Mr. Blaney said, were known the world over. Africa was visited, and Gibraltar; and the Mediterranean, touching Italy and viewing ruins of Pompeii. Egypt was shown, passing through the Suez Canal to the Holy Land, where many points of Biblical interest were shown. India and the Taj Mahal, one of the Seven Wonders of the World; China, with the Great Wall, and Japan. San Francisco, down to Panama Canal and New York, were the last points of interest. During the lecture, Mr. Blaney showed the social activities of the guests on board ship, and described the arrangements for their pleasure. The lecture was accompanied with colored slides.

Dorcas work was given out, and it is requested that all attend a prayer service to be held in the church on Ash Wednesday, March 6, at 8 p.m. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and the Benediction, after which tea was served by the hostess, and a social half-hour enjoyed.

Fashion Show Featured for Ball Tuesday

Owing to the success that attended the fashion show at the Crystal Garden, arranged by the Jantzen Knitwear, Limited, and sponsored by the Navy League Branch of the I.O.D.E., the Tuberculous Veterans by special request are arranging to have this show repeated with new and different styles at the ball and fashion show at the Empress Hotel ballroom Tuesday evening, March 5.

Headquarters, at 812 Blanshard Street, report the ticket sale large and the telephone busy enough with inquiries to keep a special operator busy supplying further details.

The committee in charge wishes to make a special appeal to all those who have tickets to make their returns at once, and also wish to announce that they have no connection in any way, shape or form with any solicitors canvassing for magazine subscriptions under the name of the Tuberculous Veterans. Mr. and Mrs. W. Lowe entertained at their home, "Sunnyside," Station Road, at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Rose Louie and Mr. Daniel Sam Joy. The gifts were concealed in a decorated bridal car, and little Victor Lowe, dressed as a sailor boy, drove the car load of gifts into the drawing-room, where they received them. Each gift had an appropriate verse suitable to its need. Games were enjoyed with much enthusiasm, and the contests took a prominent part of the evening's programme. The winners were Mesdames Dorothy Sam, Violet Lim, Mrs. Philip Chan and Mr. Ian Chan. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her sisters, Mesdames Dorothy and Edith Sam. Those invited were Mesdames Chan, Sr.; S. Chan, Jr.; L. Sam, Sr.; Lim Bang, Mr. and Mrs. Louie, Mr. and Mrs. P. Chan, Mr. and Mrs. Lum Tai, Misses Violet Lim, Dorothy Sam, Edith Sam, Messrs. Frank Sam, Fay Lim and Ian Chan.

"What is a pilgrim?" asked the schoolmaster.

The boy looked puzzled, but answered: "A pilgrim is a man, sir."

"That is a very incomplete answer," protested the master. "I am a man, but would you call me a pilgrim?"

"Oh, no, sir," said the confused little boy. "A pilgrim is a good man."

Jane Dixon Says:

FATHERS, WHO SPONGE ON CHILDREN, CAUSE OF CONSIDERABLE UNHAPPINESS

The prize for thick skins among the animals that rove the earth goes to the genus homo—notably to the parent with a hide the thickness and consistency of the armour plate on a gunboat.

Such a parent will hand his child a birth certificate and demand in return a promissory note entitling him to bed, board and keep for the remainder of his life. He considers a birth certificate a mortgage on his child's earnings, happiness, home and anything else that may accrue.

Will some of my readers please suggest ways and means of dealing with the predatory parent?

PAW "GETS AWAY FROM FARMING"

Dear Jane Dixon: I need an unbiased opinion and I am going to ask you to answer this at once as I am desperate.

A couple in their thirties have been married fifteen months and ever since their marriage have been sending money to the husband's father. We will call the father A and the son Z.

A is strong physically and mentally, is alert. In fact he is very young for his age, which is in the early fifties. He has farmed practically all of his life, but as soon as his son, Z, married, he decided he would "get away from farming." So he got rid of his furniture, his few holdings and announced he was moving in with the Z's.

Mrs. Z saw what was coming so she avoided it by pointing out to Z in plain terms, that there was no reason in what A was doing, except that it was what he wanted, and that the Z's could not afford to have him unless it was absolutely necessary.

To indicate the condition of the Z's finances, then and now, they live in a small house away out of town, their three rooms are furnished with odds and ends picked up cheaply here and there, and they cook on a small oil stove.

A, the father, hasn't had a job of any kind since he "got away from farming." He has had several chances to make money, but turned them down because they were not what he wanted to do; for example, helping a farmer for room and board and a few dollars a week. He keeps an old car and, of course, spends money for gas, oil, parts, tires, tubes, etc., but he says he needs it. He drives around various places supposedly looking for work.

In the Winter A goes to Florida and returns north in the Summer. He apparently has no judgment or initiative, but he will not take any advice though he not only accepts all the money he can get but he continuously asks for it. He has other sons and he draws on them, too, to what extent I don't know.

Do you think it is fair to the wife for her husband to keep on sending money, and never suggest to his father that he should accept work when it is offered to him and try to be self-supporting? Do you think he should tell his father frankly that he can't send any more money and make it plain that he doesn't intend to do so?

Mrs. Z wants to get a start, and feels now is the time to do it. Not only does her husband contribute to his father but he is paying debts that are the father's obligation.

What do you think is fair to all concerned?—X.I.N.

BACK ON THE FARM FOR FATHER

Answer: It appears to me that Mr. A's sons are making a very worthless old reproach out of their father.

A man of fifty odd, who has lived a healthy farm life should be in his prime, capable not only of supporting himself but of contributing to a start for his children.

The A you describe, however, is that shiftless type of parent who ekes out a bare living for his children in the expectation that they grow up one day and keep him in the manner to which he is unaccustomed. The A you picture has no intention of working and he will never work again unless he is forced to do so in order to eat and to exist. He'll just go on rattling about in the old car and when it falls apart he'll wheedle another one out of his sons, to continue his vagabondage.

You ask me what would be fair to all concerned. Is the work on the farm, room and board and spending money, still open? If it is, Z, the son, should tell his father to take the job and do it now, because there would be no more money from the gift-bag. In any case he should give A to understand he expects him to act like a father and a man, not like a worthless old cadger.

Real men do not "get away" from what they are doing unless they have something better to do. And something better doesn't mean planting themselves on their offspring in a humble home which is fighting for its own existence.

No doubt your husband is trying to be fair, but has not discovered how best to deal with such a trying parent.

I hope for your sake, for his sake, and for the sake of your home and your happiness, he will decide to be firm. You must be firm in any case, patient but determined. Don't quarrel. Declare the attitude you expect to take, and then take it. Let me know if you succeed in getting father back on the farm.

C.G.I.T. Notes

Japanese United

One of the most impressive events in C.G.I.T. circles took place Monday evening, when the graduation ceremony of the "Bluebird" Japanese C.G.I.T. group took place. Preceding the ceremony and evening programme, the Japanese girls and their guests partook of a most delightful banquet, held in the kindergarten room of the Oriental Hotel.

Miss Madeline Bock, leader of the group, presided, and the toast list was: "The Church," proposed by Yoshi Nakasugi and responded to by Rev. Mr. Ogura; "C.G.I.T.," proposed by Eiko Henni and responded to by Miss Anne Fountain, B.A., Provincial Girls' Work Secretary; "The Women's Missionary Society," proposed by Shizuko Shimizu and responded to by Mrs. (Dr.) W. G. Wilson. The evening meeting commenced with a service of worship, led by Miss Bock, the theme being "The Quest," and during this service "Take Us On the Quest of Beauty" was beautifully rendered by Sakae Furuya. Yoshi Nakasugi also contributed a piano solo and Rev. Mr. Ogura sang "The Moon on a Ruined Castle," in Japanese, and "Lead Thou My Soul," in English. Miss Anne Fountain was the guest speaker and took as her theme "Ours the Whole Majestic Past, and Ours the Shining Future."

Before the graduation ceremony took place, Miss Bock spoke of the achievements of the Bluebird group. For seven years the group has met weekly and shared together, worked together and played together, with the purpose "To cherish health, seek truth, know God and serve others." The graduation ceremony, prepared by the girls themselves, was a fitting close to the years spent together in true comradeship, and in passing on the torch to the Sunbeam Japanese group, the Bluebird group challenged them to keep the Christian ideals. After the ceremony the diplomas, designed by the girls, were presented by Miss Bock and Miss Gladys Beall, and the evening was fittingly brought to a close with prayer, led by Mrs. Saunby.

Chinese United

An interesting service was held in the Chinese United Church Sunday afternoon, when the Chinese Canadian Girls in Training, under the leadership of Miss Mildred Mossop, conducted the service. Mary-Bong presided, and the Scripture reading was given by Lucy Chow. To commemorate the twentieth anniversary of the founding of Canadian Girls in Training, a short history of its formation and growth was given in a very lucid manner by Pearl Hope, followed by an explanation of the program, insignia, colors and costume by Mary Peat.

Miss Anne Fountain, B.A., Girls' Work Secretary for British Columbia, who came from Vancouver for the occasion, gave an inspiring message. The girls of the group, thirteen in number, rendered a very lovely musical selection. The graduate girls also took part in the singing. Helen Mah presided at the piano.

Girls' Council

The monthly meeting of the Girls' Council, held Wednesday evening, took the form of a supper meeting. Miss Margaret Fleming conducted the recreation period and taught the girls several new games. The singing was led by Miss Lauretta McCall, who introduced to the meeting the new songbook, "The Treasure Book of Songs." After the business period, the girls formed discussion groups, their topic being "How can we, by co-operating with our leaders, put C.G.I.T. on a higher standard in Victoria?"

The meeting was brought to a close by a worship service, led by Miss Jean Wilson.

First Baptist

The C.G.I.T. department of First Baptist Church met at the home of the director, Miss Minnie Beveridge. The evening was spent in preparing White Cross gifts to be sent to India. Miss Veronica Stevenson led the group in worship, and the gathering closed with a sing-song and "Taps."

Hollywood Presbyterian

A successful Valentine tea was held recently by the Hollywood C.G.I.T. The tables were attractive with Spring flowers and pussy-willow. Throughout the afternoon a six-piece string orchestra, composed of Jean Mah, hard, Winnie Pollock, Moly Pollock, George Pollock, Leslie Fletcher and Victor Cooley, played many popular selections. Delightful solos were rendered by Miss "Bunny" Applegate and Miss Mona Bradford.

Hostesses

The hostesses were Misses Joan Baylis, Kitty Cameron, Lillian Johnson, Eleanor Moffat, Janet Morrison, Audrey Brind, Dorothy Turner, Phyllis Mergford, Peggy Whyte, Evelyn Taylor, Nancy Cameron, Ivy Johnson, Irene Banks, Laurie Minnie, Bunnie Applegate and Eileen Lanigan.

Wilkinson Road

Wilkinson Road United Church was filled to capacity Thursday evening with an audience of over two hundred, some coming for miles, to hear the C.G.I.T. group of Wilkinson Road and Garden City churches present a four-act play entitled "The Pill Bottle." The first act was a scene in a girl's room in a college dormitory on graduation day, when one of the girls, Barbara Lane, was leaving to visit her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lane, who were missionaries in India. Act II, "Two Knecks in a Night," was a scene in India two months later, laid in the home of Dr. Lane. Act III, "In a dispensary waiting room, four years later," where the humor and pathos of the work of a medical missionary was well portrayed by the characters dressed as natives of India. Act IV, "The God of the Pill Bottle," included the entire group, with Nellie Rafter as the "Outcast." Others of the cast were: Mrs. C. Alexander, Jean Fryatt, Anne Allan, Elsie Fryatt, Muriel Budd, Ruth Pringle, Joyce Stacey, Peggy Smith, Gertrude Boorman, Bella Stewart, Irene West, Myra Hodgson, Beth Stewart, Annie Stewart, Nellie Rainer, Ruth Smith and Hilda Brown.

Rev. W. Allan

acted as chairman, and between the acts piano solos were rendered by Dorothy Anderson and Jean Scott, members of the intermediate C.G.I.T. group. On behalf of the senior group, Muriel Rudd presented bouquets of carnations to Mrs. W. Rush, who directed the play, and to Mrs. W. P. Brown, for her assistance in taking the solo parts. Mrs. Brown suitably replied,

What Today Means

"FISCES"

If March 2 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. and from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Do not let the holiday spirit of Saturday cause you to do anything which you know is indiscreet. You take promises, made on the spur of the moment, too literally, for disappointment may result through the inability of the person to live up to them. You may be subjected to a lot of good natured "joshing" on this date. If you take it good humoredly, you will have ample opportunity to pay your friends back in their own coin. A friend may try to argue you into doing something you do not wish to do, and you will probably have reason to rejoice if you are firm in your refusal. At any social gathering do your share to be entertaining. There is no greater display of selfishness than that of a guest who expects to be entertained and makes no effort to help. Married and engaged couples, as well as those who have just about reached a perfect understanding, will show tactful judgment if they forego throwing cold water on any enthusiastic proposal made regarding something for their mutual pleasure.

If a woman, and March 2 is your birthday, do not let your love for literature, lectures and other means of gaining knowledge cause you to ignore the claims your family and friends have for some of your personal attention. Learn that there is a time to play, just as there should be a certain amount of time set aside for work or study. If you will vary your interests you may get better results both in social, as well as business matters. Marriage should help you in many ways, especially in the way of helping you to be happier, as well as contented. Should you seek a business connection; real-

Little Stories for Bedtime

—By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Bowler Is a Prisoner

Bowler the Hound was a prisoner. Yes, sir, Bowler was a sure enough prisoner. But there is a great difference in prisoners. Bowler was a prisoner of kindness. It seems funny that kindness should ever make anyone a prisoner, but it is so sometimes.

You see, it was this way: When Bowler had been taken into that strange farmhouse, he had been so used up that he had only strength enough to very feebly wag his tail. Right away the people in that farmhouse knew what had happened to Bowler. That is, they knew part of what had happened to him. They knew that he had been lost and had somehow hurt one leg. They were very, very good to him. They fed him and made a comfortable bed for him and rubbed something on the leg which he had hurt and which had swollen. Almost right away after eating Bowler went to sleep and slept and slept and slept. It was the very best thing he could have done.

The next day he felt a whole lot better, but he was so stiff and lame that he could hardly move. He didn't try very much. He was petted and cared for quite as much as he would have been at his own home. So several days passed and Bowler was beginning to feel more like himself. The more he felt like himself the more he wanted to go home. It wasn't that he would receive any greater kindness than he was now receiving, but home is home, and there is no place like it. So Bowler began to feel uneasy. "This dog doesn't belong anywhere around here," said the man of the house. "I know every hound for miles around, and I never have seen this one before. It will not do to let him go, because he will try to find his way home, and the chances are that he will get lost again. We must keep him in the house or chained up. Perhaps some day we may be able to find his owner. If not, we will keep him. I am sure he will soon become contented here." Now that man knew dogs. Had Bowler had the chance he would have done exactly what that man had said. He would have tried to find his way home, and he hadn't the least idea in the world in which direction home lay. But he didn't get the chance to try. When he was allowed to run out of doors it was always with someone to watch him. He was petted and babied and made a great deal of, but he knew all the time that he was a prisoner. He knew that if he was to get away at all he would have to sneak away, and somehow there never seemed a chance to do this. He was grateful to these kindly people, but down in his heart was a great longing for Farmer Brown's Boy and home. He always felt this longing just a wee bit stronger when Blacky the Crow passed over and cawed.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

THE NEW REDUCING DRUG—DINITROPHENOL—NOT ALWAYS SUCCESSFUL

"Observations in two cases convinced Drs. A. de Chatel and J. Motika, Berlin, that alpha-dinitrophenol is not a harmless drug, for even if given in the usual 'safe' doses it produces symptoms that show that it affects both the kidneys and the heart.

"That the action of the heart was interfered with by alpha-dinitrophenol was shown in tests with the electrocardiograph machine on the patients, and these results were the same when the drug was used on animals.

"Moreover dinitrophenol does not always accomplish its aim—reduction of weight—for in one of the patients the largest doses that could be safely given changed neither the rate at which the body processes worked nor the body height, and in the other the weight did not decrease much until the sense of taste had been lessened and the patient had lost her appetite."

I am quoting from the German Archives of Clinical Medicine, Berlin.

Naturally the overweight individual will want to know why dinitrophenol is so successful in reducing weight in some individuals, causes skin eruptions in others, damages the heart and kidneys in others, and already a number of deaths have been recorded from its use. Your doctor will tell you that ordinary doses of other drugs will cause a rash like scarlet fever, or, perhaps, the lumps on the skin known as hives.

It is along the same line as asthma, hay fever, and eczema. Why should 15 per cent of the population suffer with hay fever in the Autumn and the other eighty-five per cent have no symptoms though the ragweed pollen is entering the nose and eyes of everybody? When dinitrophenol agrees with, or is safe for the person to use, it increases the rate at which the body processes work to such an extent that a rise in temperature—a real fever—exists and this intense heat actually burns up the fat.

The drug should never be used until the usual methods of weight reduction—cutting down on food and increasing exercise—have been faithfully tried. In such cases the individual should consult his family doctor, and if he advises its use, he will also closely watch its effects.

FORMULATE PLANS FOR ARCHERY CLUB

Preliminary plans for the formation of an archery club here, were laid on Friday evening at a well-attended meeting held at the Times Building. Messrs. C. H. Clarke, R. E. Pratt, H. F. Shade and T. Wherry were appointed as a committee to select quarters for an indoor and outdoor range, and if his father made it first.

report back at the next meeting to be held in two weeks' time. At this meeting the club will be inaugurated. A membership of approximately fifty is anticipated. Prospective members may telephone H. F. Shade, temporary chairman, at G 5191, and he will gladly give any information regarding the proposed archery club.

MARINE RAIL and AIR

EGGS TRAVEL
BY AIRPLANEHatching Consignment
Reached Brisbane in 12½
Days From London

LONDON, March 1.—An experiment never before attempted, that of sending a sitting of hatching eggs for 12,000 miles by air, was carried out in connection with the recent departure of the first air-mail service from this country to Australia.

The eggs were consigned by Capt. the Hon. C. K. Greenway from his poultry farm at Stanbridge, Essex, Essex, to P. P. Finney, of the Rhode Island Red Club, Sydney, New South Wales.

On their first stage the eggs were flown from London to Paris. Then came a train link to Brindisi, and after this an air voyage across the Mediterranean in one of the big Imperial Airways flying boats. From Cairo the load went on above the desert to Baghdad, and on down the Persian Gulf to Karachi.

FLOWN IN MONOPLANE

Across India the stages were flown in one of the monoplane air-liners by Indian Trans-Continental Airways, an associated company of Imperial Airways.

From Calcutta the flight continued to Rangoon and Singapore, and then on eastward over fresh air links to Port Darwin and Brisbane—these new sections from Malaysia to Australia being operated by Qantas Empire Airways, another associated company of Imperial Airways.

The consignment of eggs reached Brisbane twelve and one-half days after leaving London, as compared with a journey of forty-five days had they gone by land and sea transport, representing a saving of thirty-two and a half days.

NOT ONE DAMAGED

From Brisbane they continued to Sydney by rail, being delivered to Mr. Finney a few days later. He immediately examined the consignment and found it in perfect condition, not a single egg having been damaged in transit.

This first consignment of hatching eggs by air from England created immense interest in Australia. Photographs of the eggs, and of the box in which they traveled, appeared in the press, with full accounts of the experiment.

Mr. Finney, the recipient of the eggs, has since communicated with Qantas Empire Airways, and also with Lord Greenway. In one letter, after promising to report further as to the results actually obtained in the hatching of the eggs, he says: "This experiment has created a 'tail' everywhere throughout Australia, and I feel personally that it will open up and develop the importing and exporting of hatching eggs to many parts of the world."

WAY CLEARED FOR AIRPORT

Huge Project for United States Army Started in Hawaiian Islands

Amicable settlement of realty values between Government representatives and the owners of land adjacent to Fort Kaneohe, near Honolulu, have cleared the way for the construction of a United States Army airport, estimated to cost between $17,000,000 and $18,000,000, state advices from the Hawaiian city.

Acres involved totals 2,250. Plans call for the filling in and grading of the tide lands and adjacent areas, now planted to sugar cane within the boundary limits; grading, and the construction of hangars, barracks and other necessary buildings. Army authorities in Honolulu are quoted as being confident the work will be under way within the next few months, though complete development of the new field will require in the neighborhood of two years.

When finished, the new airport will be the largest in the Hawaiian territory.

This is the second new airport now planned for Hawaiian areas. Recent announcements also told of anticipated work in Kaneohe, across the island from the above airport, looking forward to the installation of the new trans-Pacific commercial air service.

SUCCEEDS LATE
CAPTAIN CAREY

Capt. J. J. Cadogan Is Appointed to Command of President Cleveland

Assignment of Captain Jeremiah J. Cadogan, ex the St. President Polk, to succeed the late Captain Robert E. Carey as master of the St. President Cleveland, was announced during the week by Captain L. H. Westdahl, operating manager for the Dollar Steamship Lines, San Francisco.

Captain Cadogan is one of the veteran Dollar Line commanders, having joined the company when its around-the-world service was inaugurated in 1924. He had formerly commanded two other globe-girdlers—the St. President Hayes and St. President Harrison—before taking over the St. President Polk. In the announcement, Captain Westdahl paid high tribute to the former acting captain J. D. Heine, who, as chief officer under Captain Carey, took over command of the vessel when Carey died suddenly near Havana, en route to San Francisco. Heine will remain as chief officer under Cadogan, Westdahl announced.

Captain Cadogan has been on shore leave for several months, having yielded his command of the St. President Polk to Captain W. H. Weaver.

Churches and Their World-Wide Work

WILL DISCUSS MANY MATTERS

Dr. Davies to Deal With Local History, Suicide and Communism

Increasing congregations continue without abatement at both the morning and evening services of Dr. Clem Davies' ministry that are being held at the Empire Theatre on Government Street. The morning congregation has nearly tripled this year, and the night congregations are overflowing long before the time of starting, with many turned away from the service.

Much comfort is being received by the morning congregation in Dr. Davies' treatment of the various aspects of the "After-Life," the preacher having for his theme next Sunday morning: "What Kind of a Body Do We Get After Death?"

At night the following questions will be answered by Dr. Davies:

"Are the two girls who jumped from the airplane now united with their lovers, and can our earth problems be settled by suicide?"

"Why did Vancouver Island eventually come into British hands from the Spanish and the Russians?"

"To the Britisher today, what is the significance of the newly-discovered Papyrus diary?"

"How was gangsterism in England, reputedly worse than now obtains in America, eliminated?"

"How is the labor situation handled in the 'Law of the Lord'?"

"What is your impression of R.B.D.'s interpretation in The Colonist of Matthew xxv, 14-30?"

"To a Britisher, what are the fundamental defects of Russian Communism?"

"Are we on the way to a new economic system or to a new era?"

No seats can be assured on Sunday nights after 7:30 o'clock. Reservations for aged, hard of hearing and infirm until that time. Service usually starts fifteen minutes ahead of time at night.

MILLENNIUM IS EVENING TOPIC

The topic of the Sunday night lecture by the Christadelphians meeting in the Shrine Temple, is "The Millennium." The speaker will deal with the theological history of this doctrine in the history of the church, its reflex in the utopias of philosophy and economics, and particularly the teaching of Hebrew and Christian prophecy in regard to this future ideal age of human society in the earth.

St. Barnabas' Puts Holy Communion at Centre of Worship

MORE than any other Anglican church in this city, St. Barnabas' Church, at the corner of Cook and Caledonia Streets, of which Rev. N. E. Smith, B.A., is rector, gives the service of Holy Communion pre-eminent place at morning worship. In fact, the service of Morning Prayer is never used. As one of a series of "Visits to City Churches," an account of the rector and the services will be given in tomorrow's issue.

United Churchmen in B.C. Favor Giving Pulpit Privileges to Women

THREE of the seven presbyteries of the United Church have already expressed themselves in favor of the ordination of women to the ministry. These are Victoria Presbytery, which voted this week two to one in favor, and Westminster and Kootenay Presbyteries. Kamloops-Okanagan is opposed, while Vancouver, Cariboo and Prince Rupert have not yet taken action. Voting on this question is being taken throughout Canada and a majority in favor is required in order to make a change in the Basis of Union.

The reference to the presbyteries follows action taken at the meeting of the General Council last September in Kingston, Ont., when application was made by the Conference of Saskatchewan for the ordination of Miss Lydia Gruchy, B.A., whose work on home mission fields, it was urged, had proved her fitted for the ministerial office. The proposed emendation in the Basis of Union would be in the section on the ministry, to the effect, "women as well as men." It is anticipated that very few women will seek the privileges of the pulpit.

AIMED TO REMOVE WRONG IMPRESSION

At the Spiritual Science Temple, 1406 Douglas Street, "Spiritualism as Recorded in the Bible" will be the theme of an address to be delivered by F. Karma at the evening service. The lecture is aimed to remove the impression that "spiritualism is of the devil." Messages and visions will be features of the evening service.

REV. W. BROWN ON ENEMIES WITHIN

At Victoria West United Church on Sunday morning, Rev. W. R. Brown will continue his series of sermons on the teaching of Jesus during the last few weeks prior to His arrest and conviction. The subject will be "The Enemy Within the Gate." William McDonald will lead the choir in the anthem "Rejoice in the Lord" (Evey), and there will be a vocal number by the male quartette.

TO SPEAK TWICE AT ST. ANDREW'S

The pulpit of St. Andrew's will be occupied tomorrow by the minister, Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, who will preach both morning and evening. In the morning the subject will be "Come Unto Me" (Coenen). The choir will sing the anthem, "The Lord Is Loving" (Garrett).

TRANCE LECTURE WILL BE OFFERED

At the First Spiritualist Church, Sons of England Hall, Broad Street, on Sunday afternoon, there will be a public circle at 3 o'clock in Room 5, in the front of the hall. At the evening service, Mrs. Harrison will give a trance lecture. Messages by flowers will be given by Mrs. T. Allan.

SUPREME MOMENTS TO BE PRESENTED

Dr. W. J. Thompson Is Preacher at City Temple—Morning, Young People's Service

At the Victoria City Temple, 842 North Park Street, there will be a service of unusual interest tomorrow morning, at 11 o'clock, when young people will have complete charge of the service, as follows: Ralph Holt, chairman; Edward Cliff, scripture reading; addresses by Miss Pearl Findlay, Miss Ruth Hanson and Robert Oseleton. The City Temple Choir will present "Sing Unto the Lord" (Proust). Misses D. Gascogne, G. Phillips and J. Earl will sing a trio, "The Prayer Perfect" (Rivine), and J. Stenson and Kenneth Spring will play cornet numbers.

At 3 o'clock, in the Temple auditorium, the series of Twilight Music Recitals will be continued, under the direction of Frank Tuppen, will give a distinctive programme.

At 7:30 o'clock Dr. W. J. Thompson, pastor, will preach on "Life's Great Moments." The City Temple Choir will sing "O Praise the Lord" (Wilton), and there will be a duet by Mesdames Hebdon and Hammond, "The Garden of My Heart" (Haldor Lillenas).

SCHOLARS TO BE BAPTIZED SUNDAY

Rev. G. A. Reynolds will preach twice on Sunday. The observance of the Lord's Supper will follow after the morning service. The subject at the morning worship will be "Examination Before the Lord's Supper." The choir will render Dearest's "Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace."

At 3 o'clock, in the Emmanuel Baptist Church, Gladstone Street and Fernwood Road, a public baptismal service will be conducted, at which several scholars of the Sunday school will be baptized.

At the evening service, Mr. Reynolds will speak on "The Place of Blessing: Have You Found It?" The choir will sing Briggs' "My God, Is Any Hour So Sweet?" Miss Hazel Clyde will sing a solo.

LIQUOR MATTERS TO BE DISCUSSED

Dr. E. A. Henry Will Query Need of Beer and Wine—Evening, "Words From Cross"

"Does British Columbia Need More Beer and Wine?" is a question that Dr. Henry will try to answer during the 11 o'clock service at Fairfield Church tomorrow. At 7:30, following the usual fifteen minute song service, Dr. Henry will begin a series of sermons leading up to Easter, and based on "The Last Seven Words From the Cross." The first of the series will deal with the words: "Father Forgive Them for They Know Not What They Do."

The special music at the morning service will include a solo, "He Knows the Way" (Briggs), by Harry S. Hay, and an anthem, "Seek Ye the Lord" (Roberts), by A. W. Lucking and choir. In the evening there will be a male quartette, "Lo, How the Rose" (Praetorius), and "Softly Now the Light of Day" (Weber), by Messrs. Frank Ivings, Norman Tyrrell, Frank Rowley and Richard Pollock, and an anthem: "O Gladstone Light" (Sullivan), by the choir.

The annual Father and Son banquet will be held in the Fairfield Church schoolroom on Friday evening, March 8, at 6:30 o'clock.

WORLD PEACE IS SUBJECT FOR DAY

St. John's Church to Follow Form of Service Issued by Primate of Canada

Quinquagesima Sunday, with its definite teaching on Christian charity, has been chosen as an appropriate occasion for the subject of world peace to be presented to the Anglican Church in Canada, and the Primate of All Canada has issued a special form of service to be used in that connection. The services at St. John's Church tomorrow will be in accord with this theme.

There will be Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 12, and Evensong and service of praise at 7:30. The rector, Rev. Canon F. A. P. Chadwick, will preach at the 11 o'clock service, taking as his subject "Peace on Earth."

There will be a "Service of Praise" in the evening, the chief feature of which will be the congregational singing of well-known chants and hymns. There will be an organ recital by G. J. Burnett before the service, and during the service the choir will sing the anthem "The Day Is Past and Over" (Marka), the solos being sung by Miss Moore and L. Batchelor. Miss Clarendia Jeeves will sing "The Man of Sorrows" (Power). Arthur Jackman will sing "Come, Ye Blessed" (Pringle Scott), Miss Iris Smith will sing "Angels Ever Bright and Fair" (Handel), and Mrs. S. Sheratt will sing "Nearer, My God, to Thee" (Jennings).

The Anglican Young People's Association will observe corporate Communion at the 8 o'clock service, after which breakfast will be served in the A.Y.P.A. room.

Richards, under the auspices of the British-Israel World Federation, on Monday, at 8 o'clock, in the Campbell Building, Douglas Street. This famous stone has rested in the coronation chair in Westminster Abbey since 1296 A.D. A most wonderful story is attached to it, which draws thousands of visitors every year to the national fame. BAMBINI IS WELCOMED BY BOSTON FANS

Wild Cheering Throng Greeted Babe Ruth at Railroad Station

Boston, March 1 (AP).—A wild-eyed, cheering mob at the tiny Trinity Place railroad station almost lifted the roof as it welcomed Babe Ruth back to Boston after a fifteen-year absence.

Police kept most of the crowd on the upper level of the station, but several hundred managed to get down on the incoming train platform, where Police Commissioner Eugene M. McSweeney and Superintendent Martin H. King greeted Ruth.

Mrs. Ruth was presented with a bouquet of roses.

To Will McKechnie, whose managerial assistant the Babe will be, as well as player and vice-president, the home-run monarch of the Yankees means the punch the Braves have lacked for years, close ball games won instead of lost, the possibility even of figuring in the 1935 National League pennant award.

To the jubilant ball players, all of whom worship the big fellow, he's a baseball Moses home to lead them.

"He's facing the greatest chance of his career—and I know how great his career has been," said McKechnie.

Talking to McKechnie, there's no question of the relationship between Babe and the Braves. They want his mighty bat for the immediate future, the powerplant that has terrorized the American League for almost half Ruth's forty years.

But beyond that they want Ruth to learn the ways of club management from McKechnie, go on from there to part ownership, or more, when his playing days are definitely done, setting the stage for a long and profitable relationship down through the years.

"We can use him either in the outfield or at first base," Bill added.

"If he can play eighty or ninety ball games, with the tremendous punch he'll give us in action, and the menace of him waiting on the bench, something the Braves never have had, we're going to do something."

Second Division—Morrison, Evans, Price, Hetherington, Ewing, Stokes, Shoultice, McCall, Politano, Turner, Gent, Viggers, Brown, Parker and Armistage.

The draw for Tuesday night follows:

7:30 P.M.

Remember When

(Twenty-Five Years Ago)

"Yes, I'm delighted," remarked A. T. Goward, captain of the last Victoria Rugby team which held the British Columbia championship, commenting on Victoria's recent success.

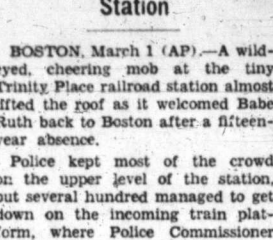

"How long ago is it since your fifteen held the premier honors?" asked Mr. Goward's interviewer, and the query, as was expected, carried the retired player back over seven or eight years which have intervened in the effort to recall the time. After deep thought he admitted he couldn't tell exactly. "I retired when somewhere about my thirtieth year, but, really I can't say just how old I am now—about thirty-eight, I think. The first year I took over the captaincy we did not win the silverware, but afterwards for three consecutive years, or until the date of my retirement, we retained the championship. In fact," and he smiled with natural pride, "during that period we never lost a game."

Weather permitting, a practice of the Victoria Women's Hockey Club will be held at Oak Bay at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Subsequent to the practice game, the team that will represent the city against Vancouver on Saturday next will be chosen. Reports from Vancouver show that the players there have been practising vigorously in the hope of avenging their defeat at the hands of the locals on the occasion when the latter visited the mainland. Saturday's game will be played at Oak Bay Park and promises to attract a large audience. Should the Victoria team win the match the locals will be champions of the province for the year. If victory goes to Vancouver, another game will be necessary to decide the title.

Willows Badminton Club Meet Is Billed March 6

Championships in All Divisions Will Be at Stake in Annual Meet at the Willows—Entries Must Be Filed by Monday

Ruling monarchs of the Willows Badminton Club for the 1934-35 season will be crowned at the annual championship meet which opens at the club courts, the Willows, on Wednesday. Entries must be filed not later than Monday.

Members may place their names on the entry list at the club quarters, or telephone the secretary, J. P. Phillips, at E 4886.

Titles in all events will be at stake, with handsome challenge cups going to the champions. New titles will be crowned in the women's and men's singles, and in the women's and men's doubles.

Drennan Hincks, defending champion, will be unable to defend his laurels. He injured his right arm in the recent city championships, and is still unable to perform. Miss Jean Campbell, women's titlist, will be unable to compete owing to ill health, while the women's and men's doubles team have been broken up.

EXPECT KEEN COMPETITION

Keen competition is expected in all divisions, and before the new titleholders are named, many fine shuttle matches will be played at the Willows courts.

In the men's singles, Reg Corfield, Paul Phillips and Don Davis will be strong contenders, while in the women's event, Dorothy Morley, Margery Hughes, Peggy MacDonald and Mrs. Mangin are expected to go a long way in quest of the title.

The handicap events are expected to draw a large entry, while the junior competitions for girls and boys will see some of the city's brightest badminton stars battling for supremacy.

The Jumping Flea—The Ukulele, most popular Hawaiian instrument, was not invented in Hawaii but was introduced there by the Portuguese in 1877. The skipping movement of the player's fingers from one side of the instrument to the other, suggested its Hawaiian name. "Uku" is an insect in Hawaiian, "lele" means "to bounce, to jump." Hence "ukulele" means literally a jumping insect or a flea.

The House of Sixty Echoes—An echo of the strongest power characterizes the Palace of Simonetta, about two miles out of Milan, Italy. The house forms three sides of a quadrangle. The parallel walls cause the sound to reverberate back and forth till the sound waves are quite spent. On a foggy day the human voice will reverberate fifty-six times, before it is still. On a fair day the number of echoes reaches sixty. The sound of a single musical instrument resembles a great orchestra playing in concert.

TO BE AN ARGUS

"He was a regular Argus," it is said of a former Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, who, incidentally, antagonized many people because of his watchful and vigilant guardianship of his trust. This metaphorical use of "Argus" is a reference to Greek antiquity. The allusion is to the fabulous being, Argus, who was said to have a hundred eyes. Argus was set by Juno to watch Io, who was having one of those Greek god-love affairs with Juno's husband, Jupiter. Argus was finally killed by Mercury and his eyes were placed in the peacock's tail!

TRIO TO REMAIN FOR THIRD WEEK

The Strong Evangelistic Party to Continue Services at Foursquare
Gospel Bethany Church

Evangelistic services conducted for the past two weeks in the Bethany Church of the Foursquare Gospel, 1415 Blanshard Street, by the Strong Evangelistic Party have proved such a blessing that it has been decided to continue for another week.

On Sunday a Communion service will be held at 11 o'clock. The evening evangelistic rally will begin at 7:30, at which Miss Verna M. Strong will speak. A bright and inspiring musical programme will include a vocal trio, soprano solo and instrumental selections.

Services will be held every night next week except Friday and Saturday, at 8 o'clock. On Friday, at 7:30, the opening of the Spring term of the Bible School will be held, to which the public is invited.

"Amusement Of Lord" Is Talk Subject

At the Victoria Truth Centre tomorrow morning W. Newell Weston will speak on "The Amusement of the Lord." There will be a solo by Mr. Jackman, "Beyond the Dawn" (Sanderson).

At 7:30 o'clock Mr. Weston's subject will be "Intuition and Surrender." There will be singing by the Temple Quartette, "Sweet Sabbath Eve" (Parks) and "No Shadows Yonder" (Gaul).

The Young People's Society meets on Tuesday evening. The topic for the Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock is "Healing of All Things," and for the Friday evening meeting at the same hour, "Fundamentals of Truth."

WILL PREACH ON SONG IN HEAVEN

Rev. J. B. Rowell's Evening Subject
Is "The Hallelujah Chorus in Emmanuel's Land"

"The Hallelujah Chorus—When the Redeemed Sing in Emmanuel's Land" will be the refreshing contemplation at the Central Baptist Church on Sunday evening, when the pastor, Rev. J. B. Rowell, will preach on the theme of eternal interest, "The Heavenly Homeland." The Lord's Supper will be observed. At the morning service Mr. Rowell will speak on the subject, "The Inheritance of the Saints in Light and the Secret of a Rejoicing Heart."

Dr. Arno C. Gaebelein, world-renowned Bible expositor and spokesman of prophetic truth, will begin his Bible conference on Sunday, March 10.

The Victoria Bible School will hold its weekly session on Tuesday night from 8 to 9:30 o'clock.

"CHRIST JESUS" IS DAY'S THEME

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The golden text is: "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him: For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily" (Colossians II, 6, 9).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And He saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: He is risen: He is not here: behold the place where they laid Him" (Mark xvi, 6).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We acknowledge that the crucifixion of Jesus and His resurrection served to uplift faith to understand eternal life, even the allness of Soul, Spirit, and the nothingness of matter."

JAMES BAY WILL HAVE OPEN FORUM

Discussion of the great truths taught by Jesus during the last weeks of His earthly ministry will be continued at James Bay United Church on Sunday evening. Rev. W. R. Brown will preach on "Jesus, You and I and the Devil Eating Out of the Same Dish." Mrs. T. Southern will be the soloist, and the choir, under the leadership of Chris Wade, will render an anthem. Instrumental music will be supplied by Chris Wade, Gilbert Margison and Justin Gilbert on piano and violins.

At the conclusion of the service there will be an open discussion on the meaning of usury in the Old Testament and its place in modern life.

PASTOR TO SPEAK ON FACING CROSS

"Facing the Cross" will be the subject to be presented at Grace English Lutheran Church tomorrow by the pastor, Rev. Theo. A. Jansen. Miss Albertine Miller will sing "Fear Ye Not, O Israel." Luther Jansen will lead the Luther League meeting at 7 o'clock, when the topic, "Keeping Lent," will be discussed. At 7:45 the sermon subject will be "Facing the Cross." The choir will sing "The Lord Reigneth" (John J. Thomas).
